Clerical And Maintenance

The People Behind The Scenes

Behind the scenes as a theme for a yearbook took on flesh and blood in the persons of Mrs. Alberta Runge, Mrs. Pam Badon, Mr. Noe Cadena, and Bro.'s Leo Rausch and Harald Hammond. Mrs. Runge continued to serve students and teachers in the main office as she has for many years. Mrs. Pam Badon, senior John Badon's mother, took on the tasks of principal's secretary. This was her first year at Serra as an employee.

Mr. Noe Cadena applied his years of experience in business to Serra's financial problems as bookkeeper assisted by Bro. Hammond who returned to the school this year after working at Marionist Provincial Headquarters in Cupertino, California. Bro Leo Rausch, in addition to running the bookstore, worked in the main office. He has worked at Serra for nearly two decades.

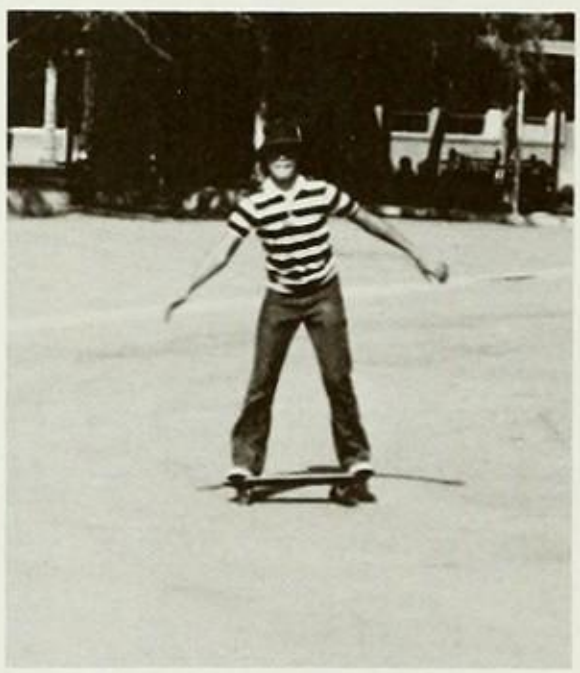
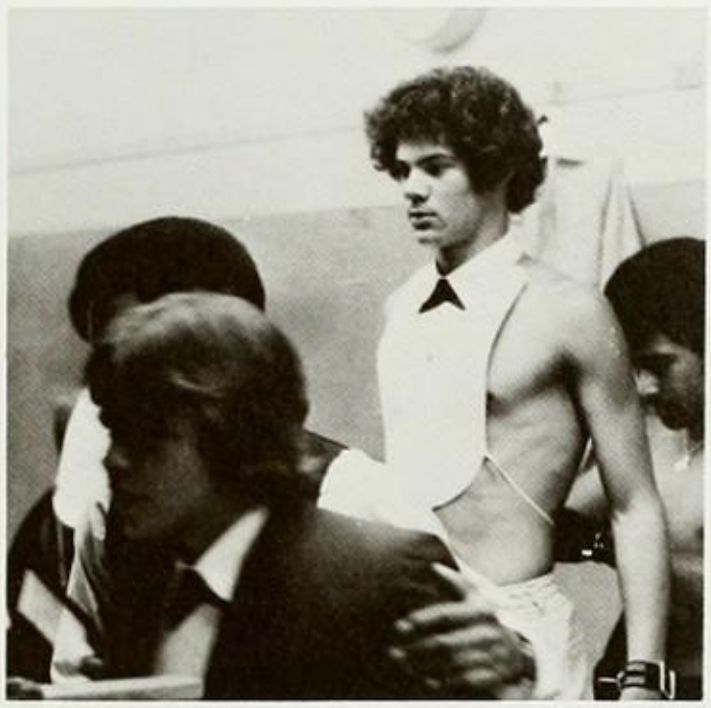
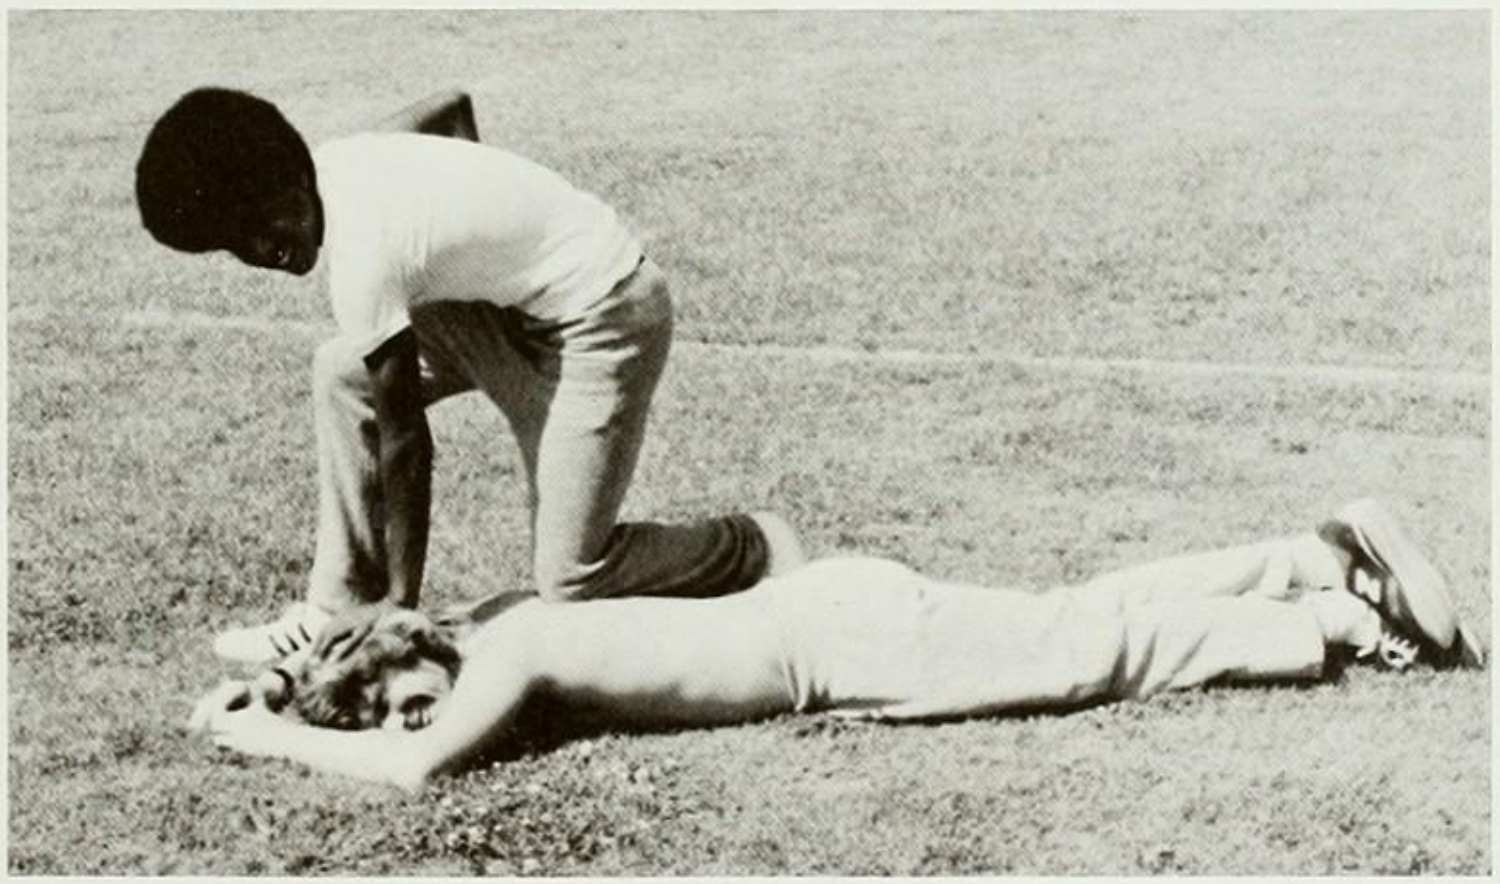
Student Life







Classes

The role of teacher and student in the classroom has changed a considerable degree since the 60's.

The classes here at Serra are a model of the prevalent attitude of close teacher-student inter-reaction. Each probes the other in search of answers. Most restrictions have been lifted as to what you can and cannot say, giving the statement "seek and you shall find" credibility at J.S.H. Everything from sex in marriage to the pro's and con's of communism is discussed freely and openly in an academic atmosphere.

The courses, or learning experiences, are diverse but yet focus on the necessary skills needed in a fast paced society. Everything from the delicate strokes of a brush on a time consuming work of art to the precise incisions on the abdomen of a fetal pig can be found behind the wooden doors of Serra High.

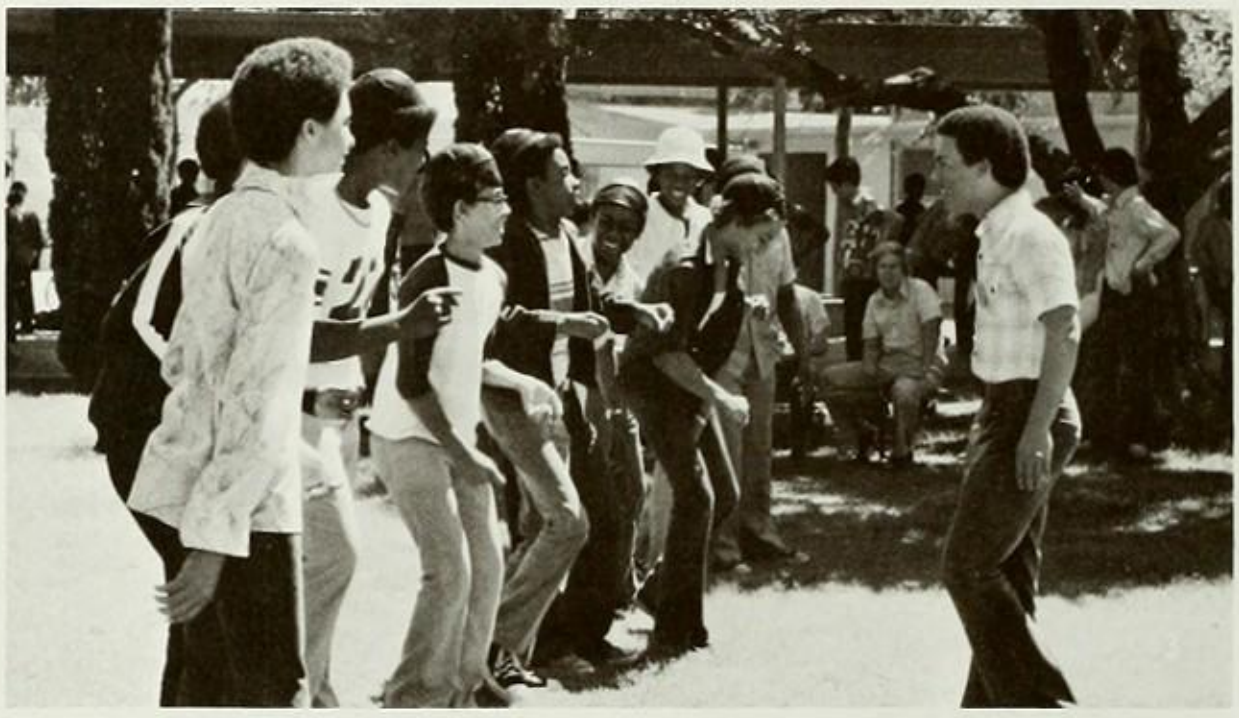
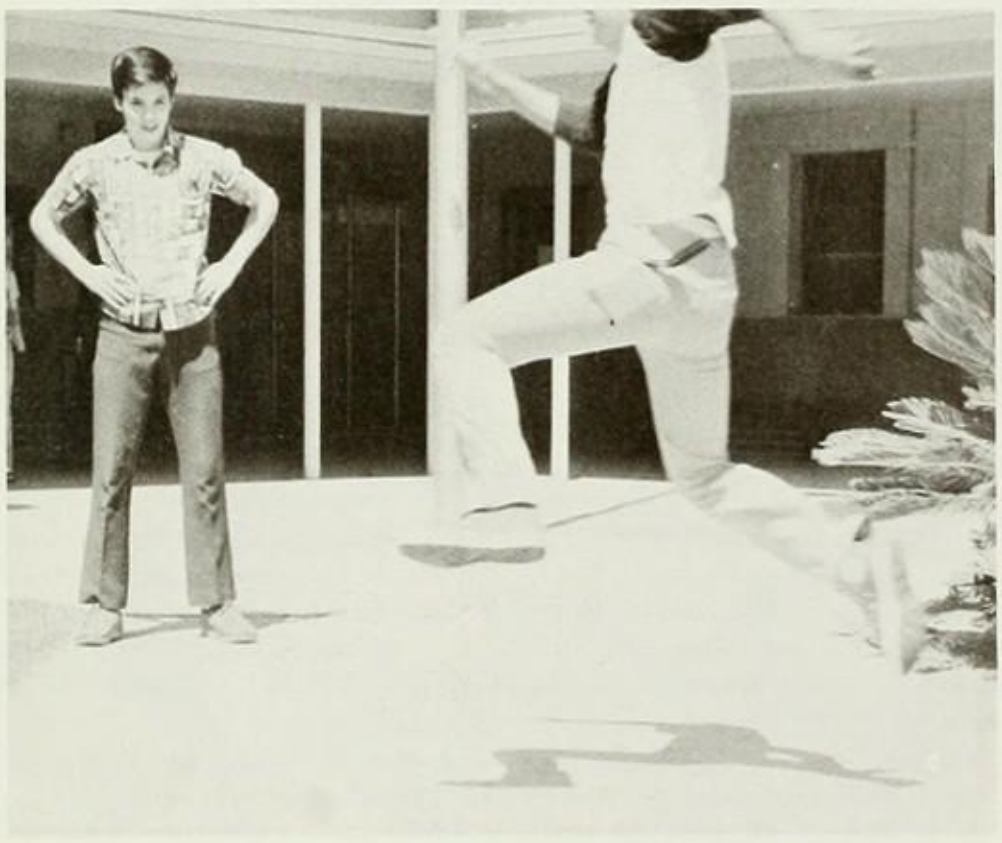
1. Acting as the villain in a skit during Mr. Francis' drama class, Michael Ruddy stands triumphantly over John Fejes.
2. Mrs. Meyers, mother of a Serra student, describes the small island country of Trinidad to a junior ethics class.
3. Mr. Fernandez, a representative from an alcoholic center for blacks, speaks of alcohol addiction.
4. Preparing for an experiment; Ralph Gutierrez finds the mass of a beaker during physics lab.
5. Chris Lenon tries to improve his typing skills in one of Mr. Balakians famous classes.
6. For his speech assignment, Carl Sanders tells of the many uses and varities of corn.
7. Henoch Carillo heats a tube of glass as part of his chemistry lab.
8. Carefully following his own pattern; Eric Dailey makes a silk screen for an art project.
9. Theodore McCrary has a case of the Monday morning blahs during third period Spanish.

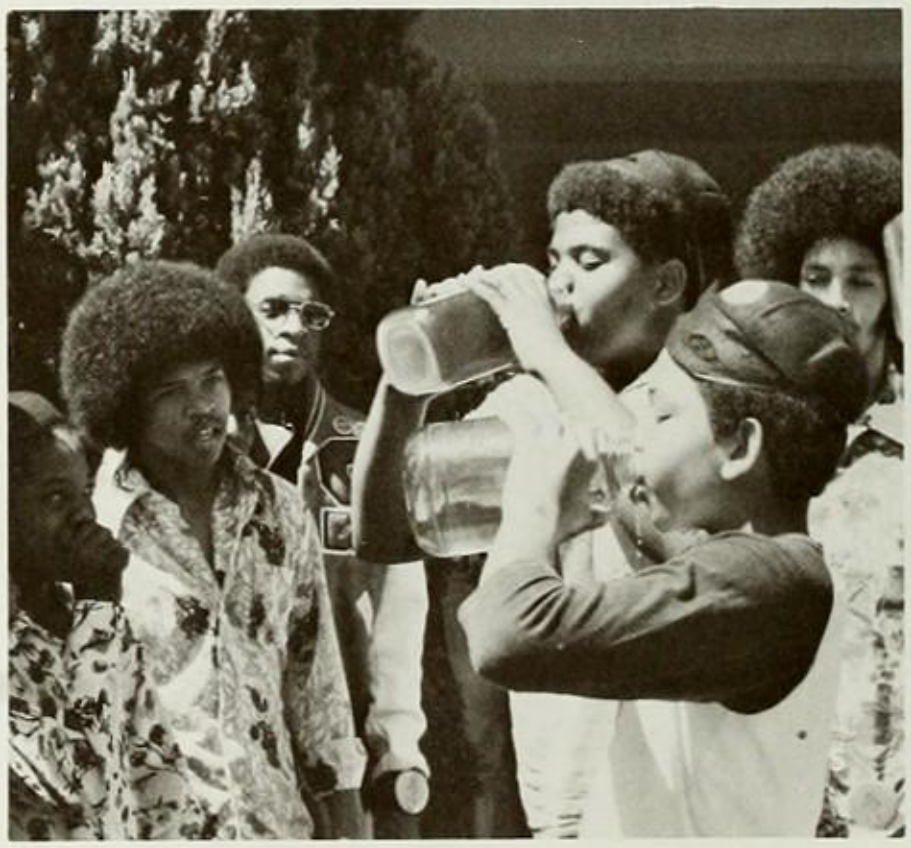
Freshman Welcome Week

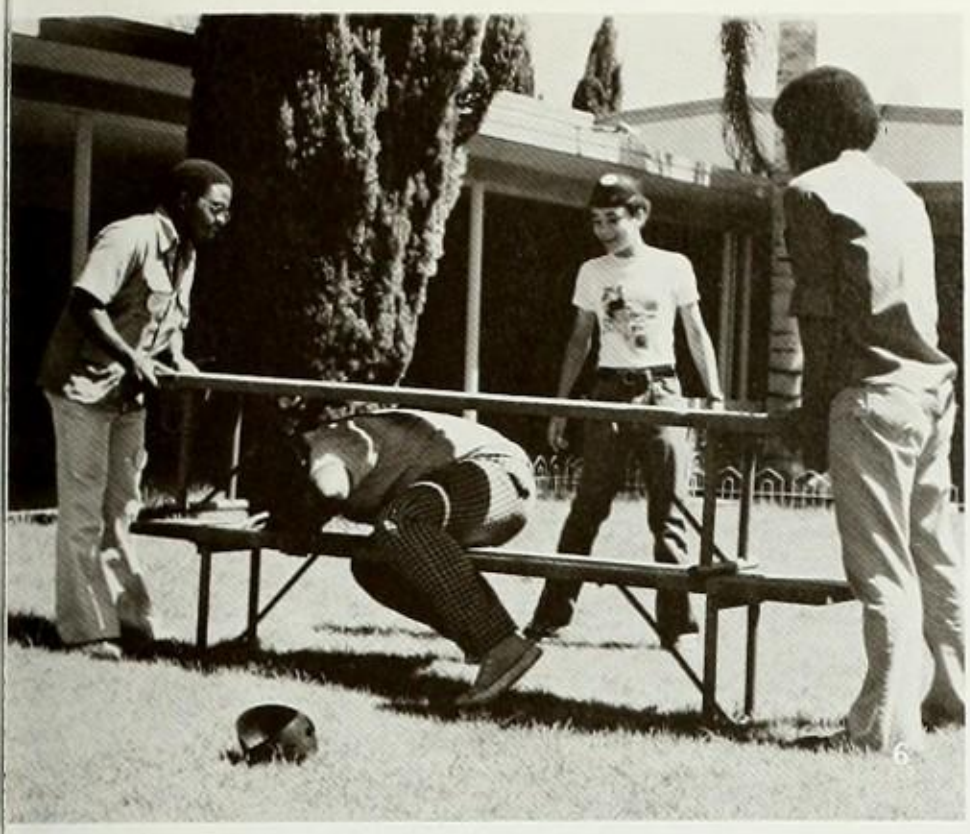
Seniors Welcome Freshmen To Serra Family

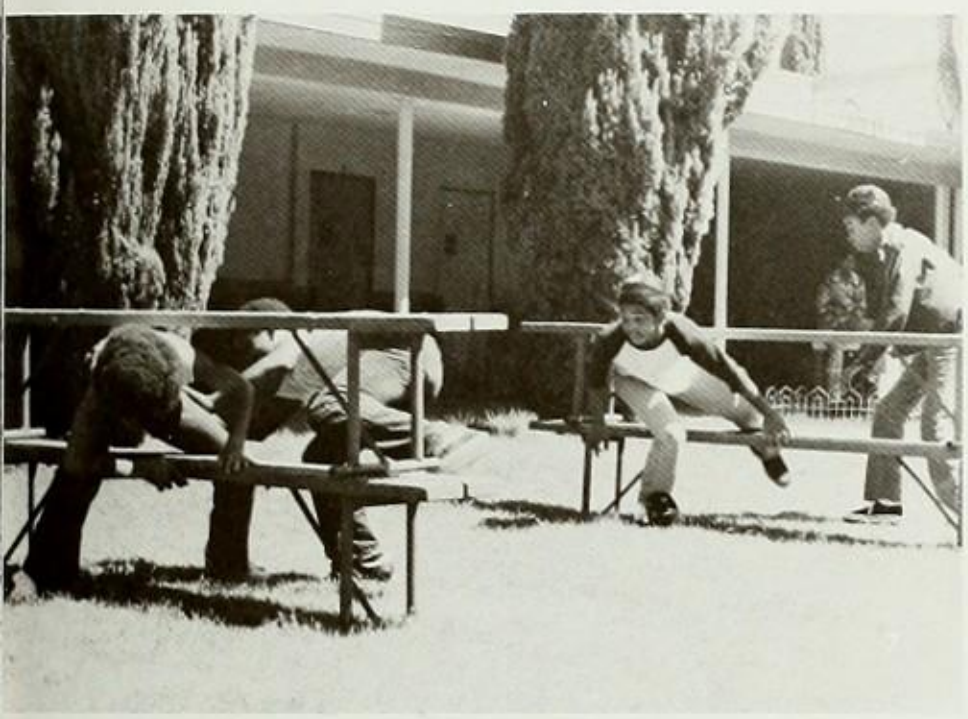
"Tip it!" was the catch phrase during a very successful Freshman Welcome Week. Seniors and freshmen alike were eager to engage in the many activities planned by the student council. The first activity was "The Auction" where seniors bought freshmen just as traders bought slaves many years ago. The frosh, a very cooperative group, seemed to be in awe as they watched the seniors roll out the green bills for their prospective "fresh meat." Later in the week, as the activities went on, contests which pitted frosh against frosh clearly exhibited the good spirit among all. Thus the week was a big success as both winners and losers came through with the "Good Ole Serra Pride."

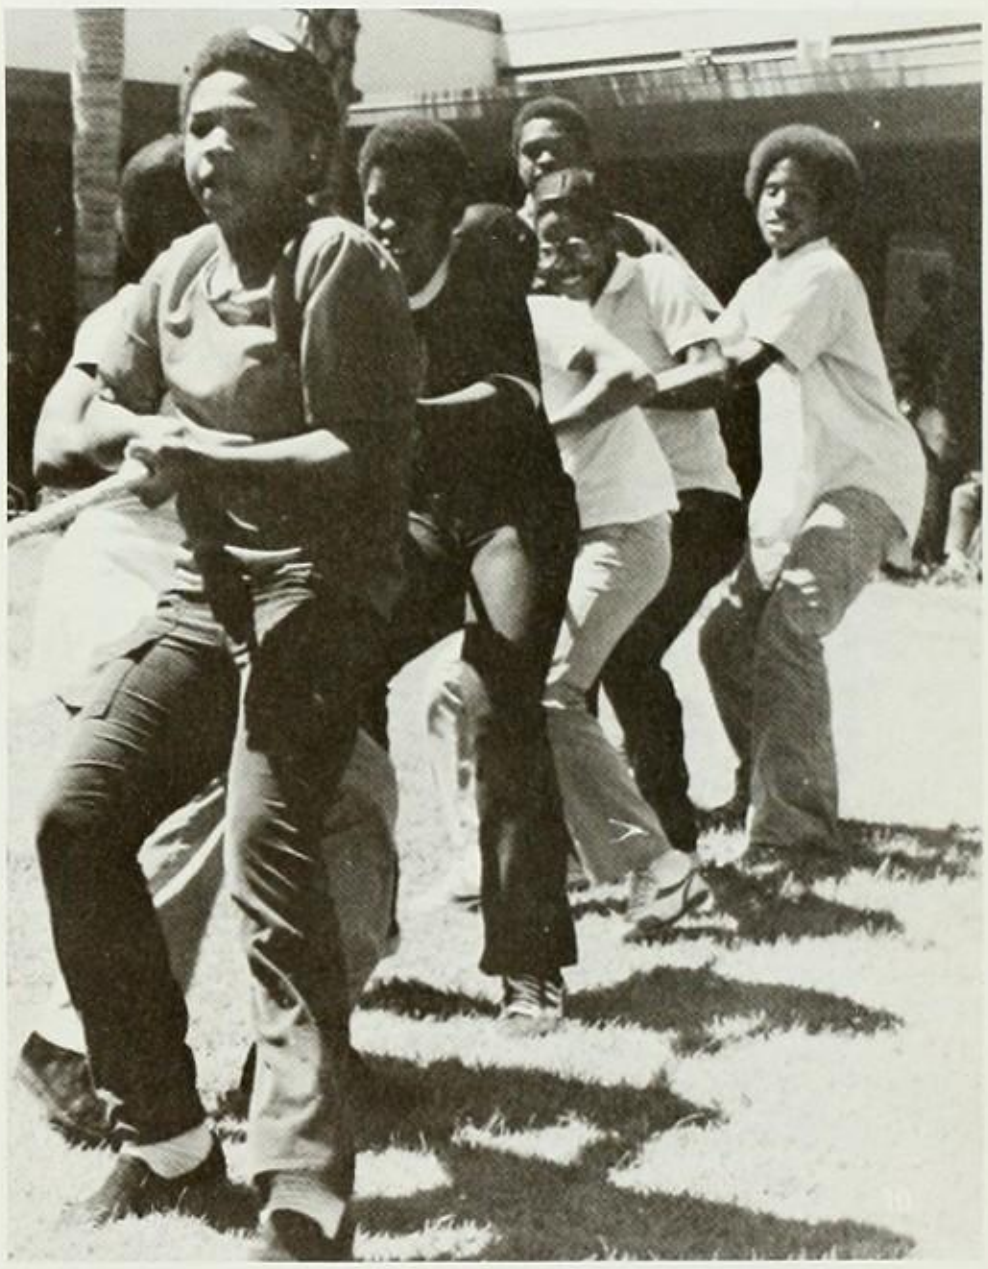












1. Although there is no music playing freshmen Delton Davis and Tony Verture boogie down. 2. Strength exhausted, these frosh slowly sink into Senior Walk. 3. Jon Smith emcees Freshmen Welcome Week dance contest. 4. David Powell keeps a vigil over Senior Walk as a frosh makes a foolhardy leap. 5. Seniors look on while freshmen vie for chug-a-lug title. 6. Seniors keep the obstacles together as Hayward Hudsmith goes through. 7. Frosh give all they have to be sole victors in the obstacle race. 8. Joshua Lewis and Mark LeDuff pass through the last leg of the course. 9. Bryant Willard trains Greg Page to fetch a comb. 10. The winning side of the tug-a-war begins to pull the other team onto Senior Walk.

Thespians Reach For Stardom

2

The school year, 1977-78, for the Thespian Troup 2676 was as successful as it was exciting. The Serra Thespians were entertainers indeed. Performances proved superlative in many competitions that they entered. "A Midsummer Nights Dream," the Shakesperian story of six bumbling actors, took the Thespians to such competitions as Dominguez Hills, Long Beach, and Harbor Colleges.The professionalism of the performances was conveyed so well to the audience, many of whom were drama coaches and judges and experts in the field, that "A Midsummer Nights Dream" was chosen for the National Thespian Convention in Oakland. Competition was only one aspect of the Thespian Society. Serra had become prominent in play production too. The Serra Thespians performed play after play with outstanding success, expected of fine actors. Such plays were "Murder on the Orient Express," "Charlie's Aunt," "Night of January 16," and "The Importance of Being Earnest."

1. An elegant ship traveling along the Nile sets the scene for murder and deceit in Agatha Christie's "Murder on the Nile." Miss ffiliot-Fowlkes (Wynell) is greeted by the steward (Clark), while avoiding beadseller (Williams).
2. On stage during "Enter Laughing", Roger (Mike Ruddy) gives his suit to David (Baratti) so he can perform.
3. Student director Laurence Williams and director John Francis look on at a rehersal of "Enter Laughing."
4. Marie Ryan and Karen Ruddy anxiously await their turn to read a part at a "Charlie"s Aunt" audition.
5. The steward (Clark) announces departure to Miss ffiliot-Fowlkes (Wynell) and Christina (Marie) in a scene from "Murder on the Nile."
6. In J. Stein's "Enter Laughing," David (Baratti) phones friends, Marvin and Wanda, and his parents to tell them of his acceptance in his first play.

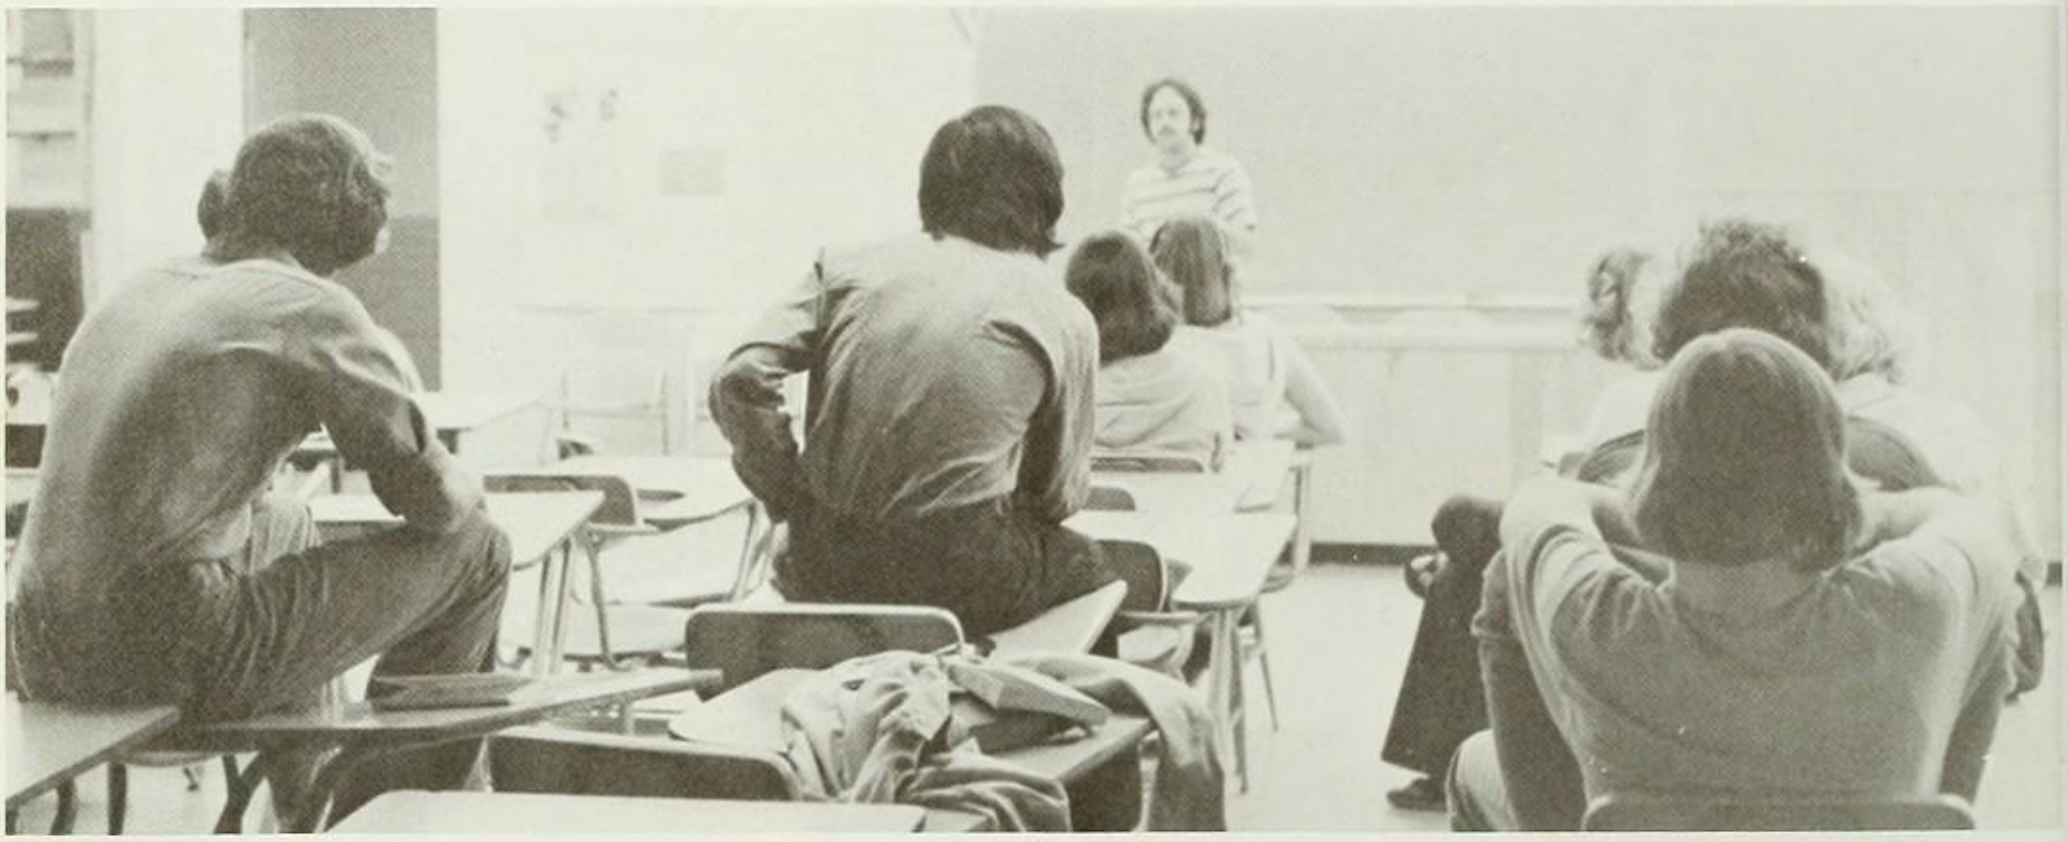
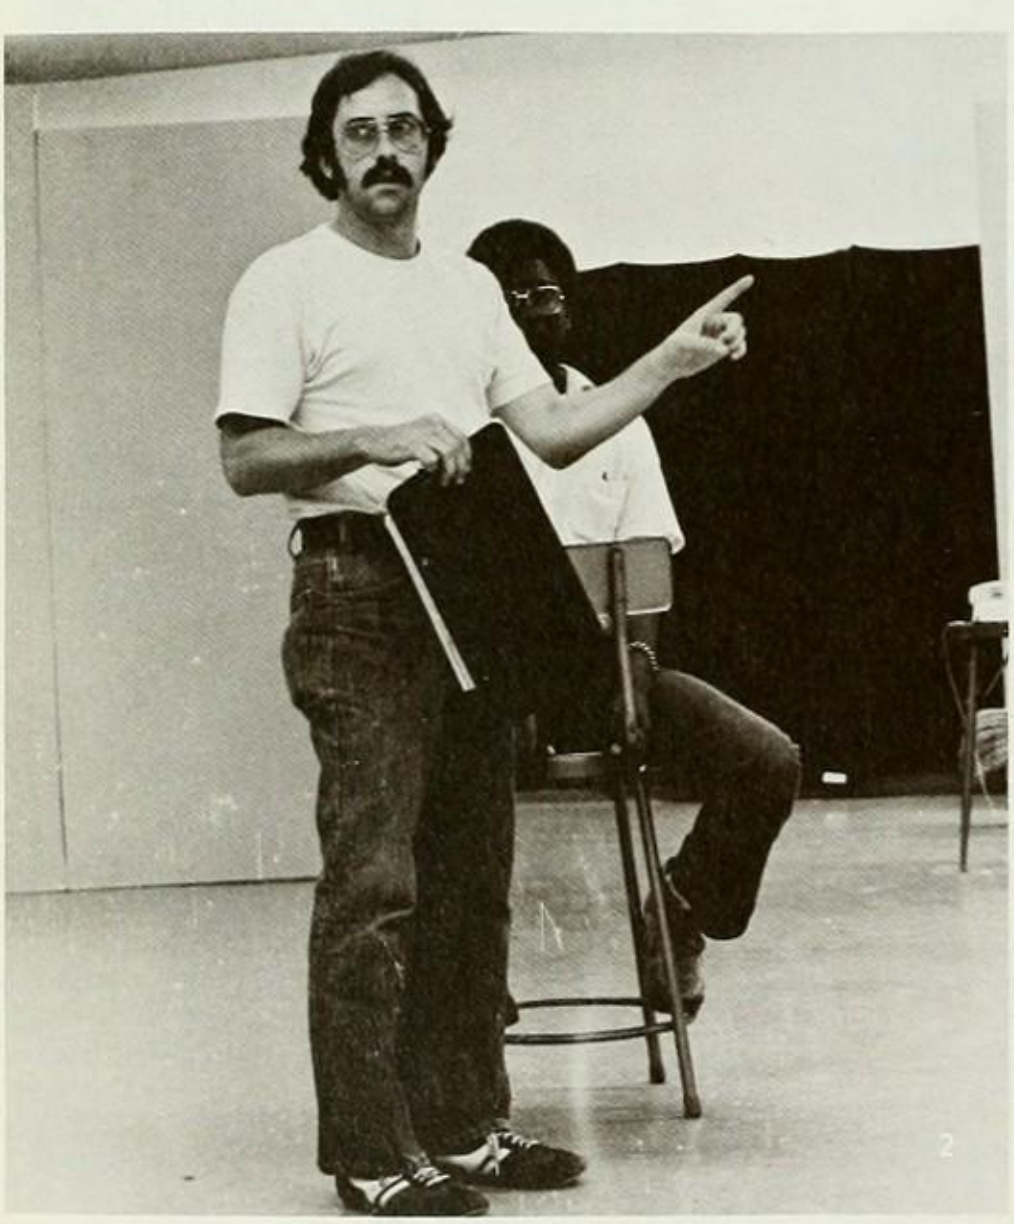
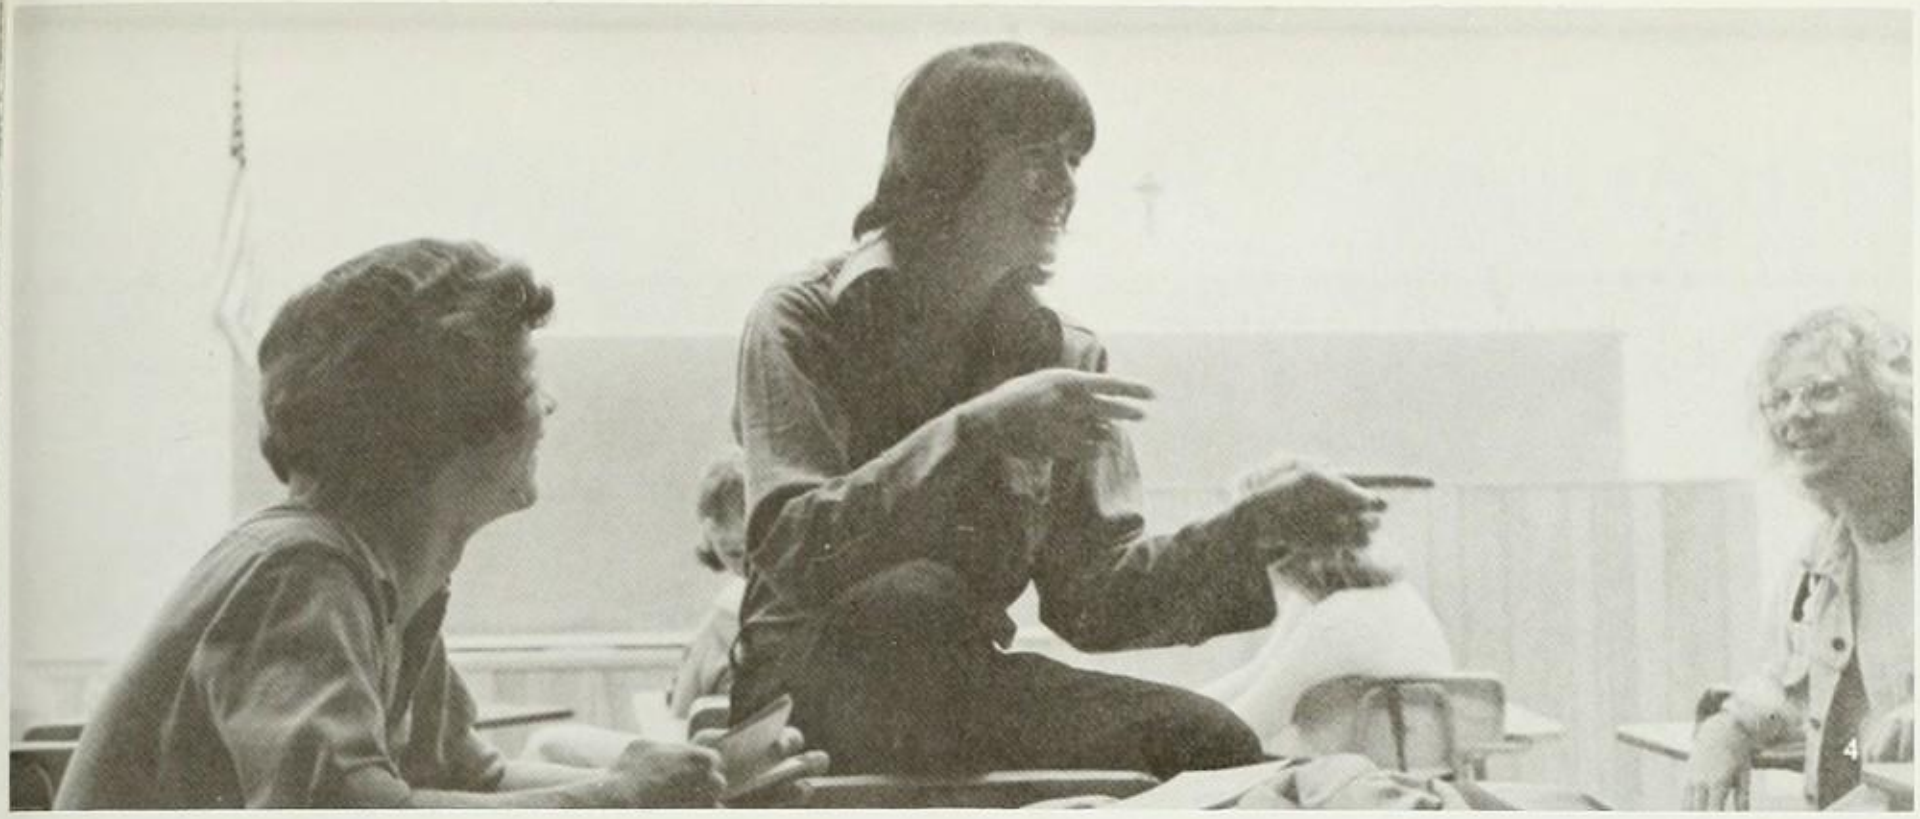
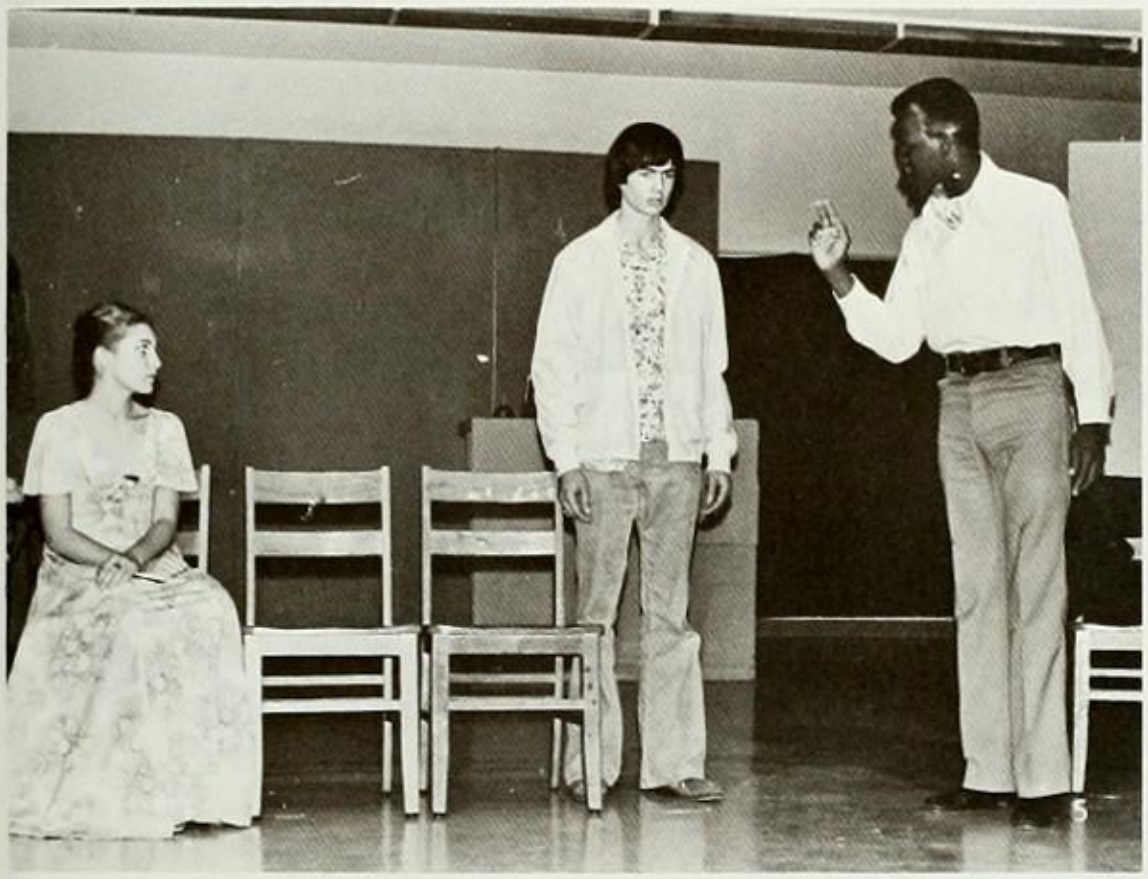
The Serra men and the female associates proved to be professionals in the truest sense of the word, in their portrayals of the many different characters from each play. Acting, student directing, stage crews and directing all made Serra's Theatre Arts Department unusually good for high school drama.









1. Behind the scenes in drama class. John Francis describes the characters of "Enter Laughing."
2. Director John Francis and student director give one of many pep talks to "Laughing" cast.
3. In "Laughing," Marlowe (Williams) explains to David (Baratti) the importance of being a good actor.
4. Clark, Baratti and McKindley tell jokes during break in rehersal for "Laughing."
5. Angela (Esteves) looks on as Marlowe (Williams) shows David (Baratti) how to develop his character.
6. Mr. Foreman (Clark), David's boss, expresses his disapproval of David's desire to become an actor.
7. John Fejes paints flats which are important in the production of a play.

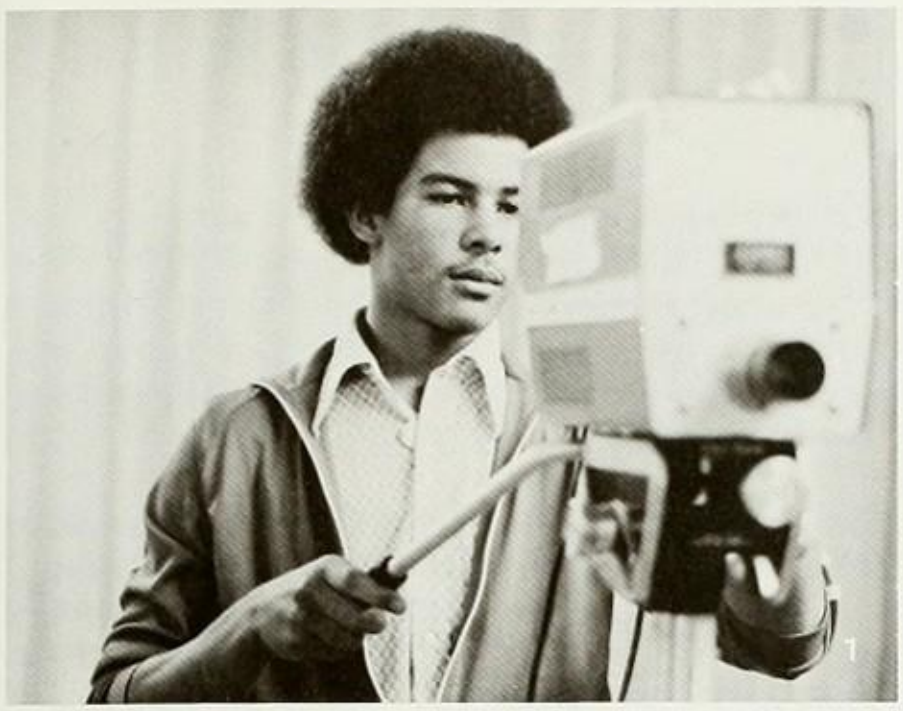
Club Activities

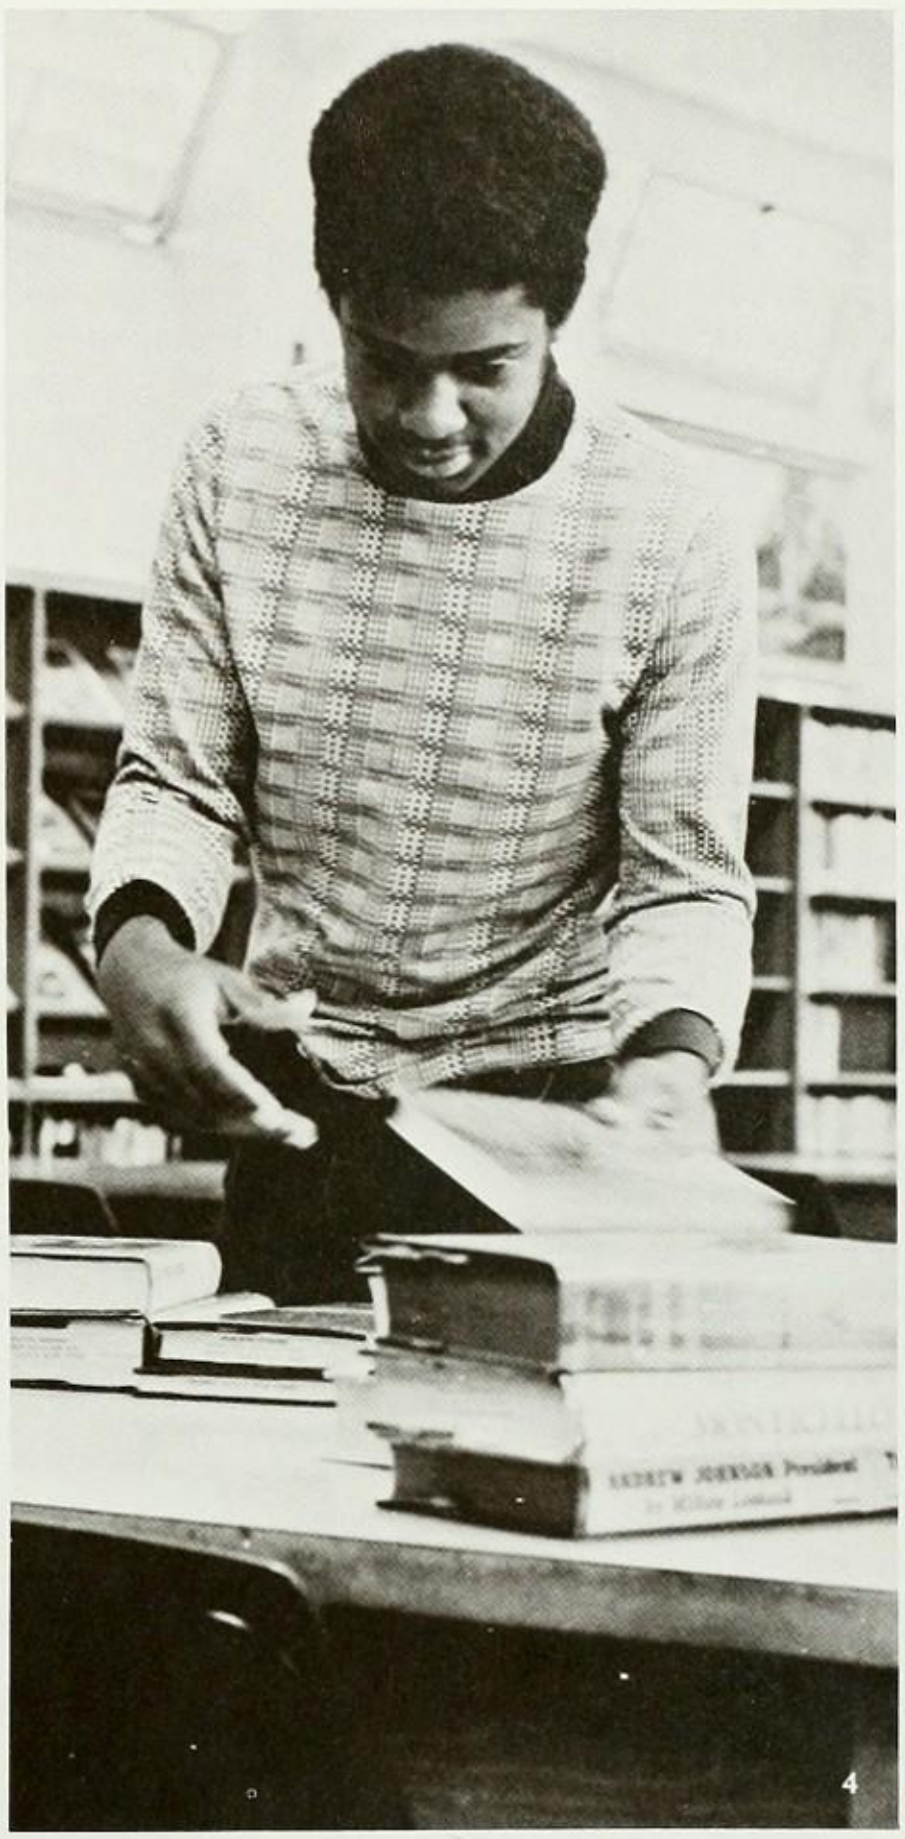
Throughout it's history, Serra has been outstanding in offering a wide variety of clubs. This year was no different. Such clubs as Aerospace and Tennis were active, existing only through the participation of the student body.

When the clubs were threatened by an apathetical depression, the Inter-Club Council proceeded to develop a system which would resurrect them. Students were polled for their interests and the club activities were adjusted to meet their needs.

This system channelled Serra students toward greater involvement, this making a most surprisingly successful year for Serra's clubs.

1. Offstage T.V. crew member Bryan Frank focuses his camera on the main action.
2. During a lunch break, sophomores Avery Burns and Arnold Fisk play a round of chess in one of the tournaments.
3. Inter-Club Council Chairman Mark Allen reports to club representatives the status of the Club of the Year drive.
4. Junior Rudy Clark sorts through returned books as part of his duties in the Library Club.
5. Ken Sison and Tom Zdralek, part of the Executive Board of the Serra High chapter of the CSF, discuss plans with moderator John Cragin on the upcoming Scholar Bowl.





The Cavalier

The Cavalier, the school newspaper, is more than the average everyday ordinary throwaway line birdcages or polish your shoes on newspaper.

The paper's success this year can be attributed to moderator Mr. Francis and his hard working staff.

The Cavalier reported all events about Serra, informed the students, and acted as a medium to transfer school spirit.

Working at the Gardena Valley News headquarters, the Serra newspaper staff had a taste of what a real newspaper goes through in production.

In between the original writing of the stories and the copy you receive the stories are typed, retyped, a trial printing, more correcting, and the final print is set.

This year the staff that worked with the Gardena Valley News media in production of the school newspaper was John Smith, managing editor, Chris Davis, Tim McKindley, Mark Allen, John Fejes, and Paul Baratti.

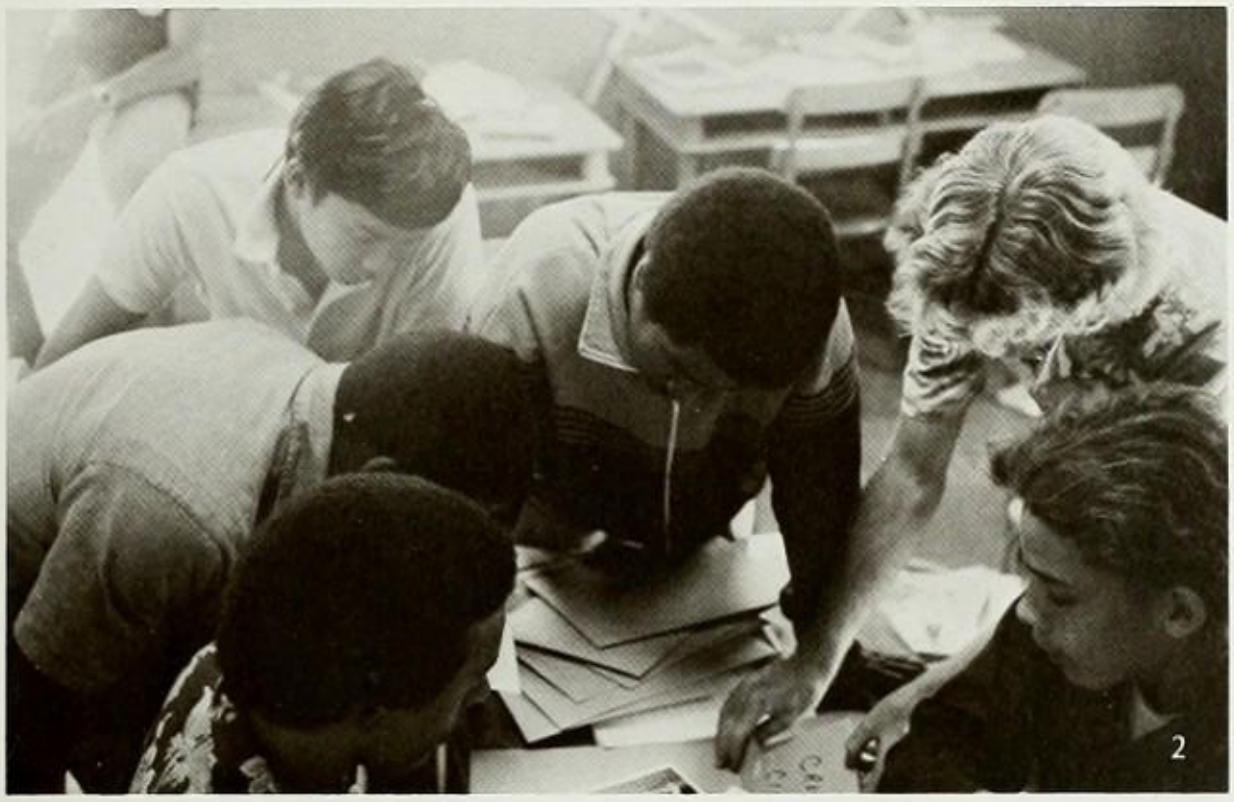
The El Padre

Documenting a school year is an awesome assignment, an assignment deserving of a highly competent group of people, and that is what this annual had.

From mid-July to May the staff labored over photographs, copy, page designs, and every minute detail that made this yearbook.

Seniors Jorge Wong and Ralph Gutierrez, two of only three returning staff members from last years annual, headed the program with the guidance of Mr. Bruce Langedyke. The remaining editors were John Powell and Darren Casonhua with Tom Zdralek as Business Manager.

Mr. Langedyke said of the staff, "Of my three years as yearbook advisor, this one has been the best."



1. As the deadline approaches, editor Jorge Wong checks the pages that are to be turned into the publisher.
2. The El Padre staff examine pictures with the Cavalier editor, John Smith.
3. Layne Millon jots down ideas for copy that will go into the faculty section of the yearbook.
4. In a rare moment of peace, layout editor Ralph Gutierrez thumbs through the Los Angeles Times.

Student Council Gets Involved

Behind the scenes of the student government were six young men. Under the guidance of a strong moderator, these men worked together to make the year 1977-78 a memorable one. With the help of homeroom presidents, the student council opened the Serra doors to neighboring "sister" schools, St. Michael and St. Mary. After long hours of preparation-sometimes weeks- the student governments of these schools and Serra filled the school year with outstanding events.

The student government gave a new kind of spirit. Participation in rallies, game and dance attendance, and involvement in activities, flavored with the council's enthusiasm generated a sincere pride throughout Serra's school year.

Better public relations topped with hard work and determination made the Serra student council a proud, upstanding student council.

2. During the Thanksgiving Mass, Anthony Tate delivers one of the readings.
3. As the school year commences, Mark Allen posts the description of clubs that are available to the entire student body.
4. At the end of a mass, Chief Justice Derrick William executes the traditional duty of dismissing the divisions.
5. John Smith reviews the minutes of a student council meeting.
6. Midway through the Thanksgiving Mass, Earskine Reese quotes from the Bible.

Danielle Andrews

1977 Homecoming Queen

This year's homecoming was very exciting. As the Serra alumni came together to relive some of their high school days, people waited to see who would become the 1977-78 Homecoming Queen. Tension mounted during the week as the young ladies came to be interviewed, each hoping to make the court. Danielle Andrews, Derozette Nicholson, Paulette Oliver, Jill DeCoud and Donna Collins made appealing speeches to the student body on Friday afternoon. The big moment came Friday night at the game when ASB Secretary Jon Smith announced that the 1977-78 Homecoming Queen was Danielle Andrews. Danielle was crowned by Cathy Girard, Serra's 1976-77 queen.

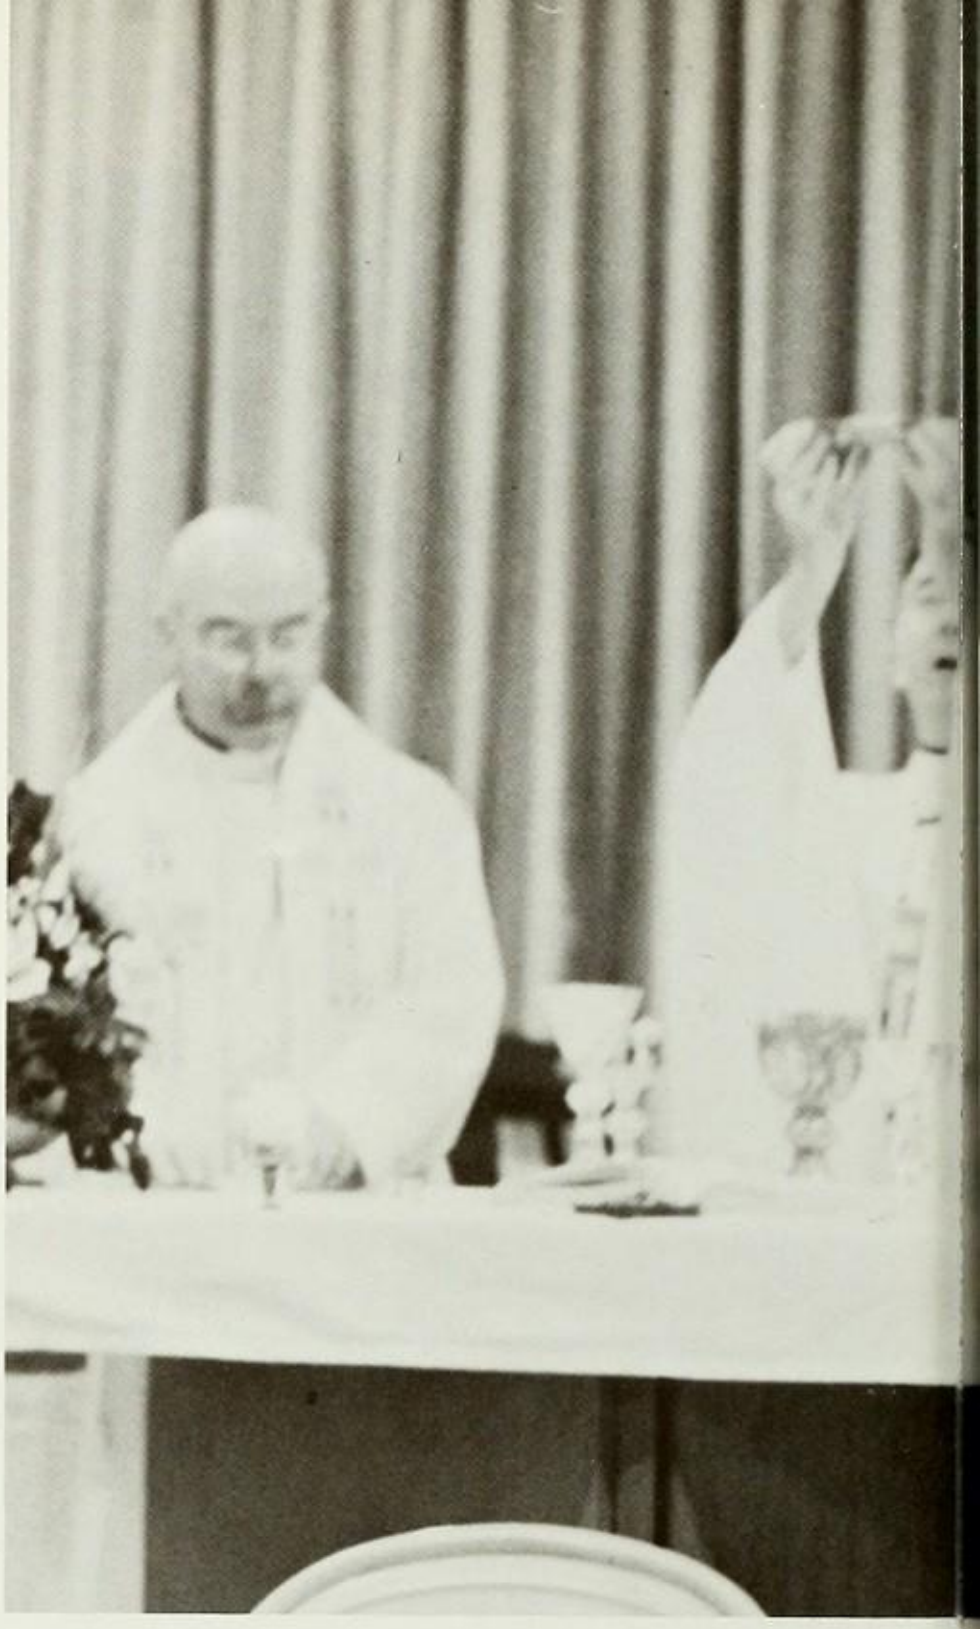
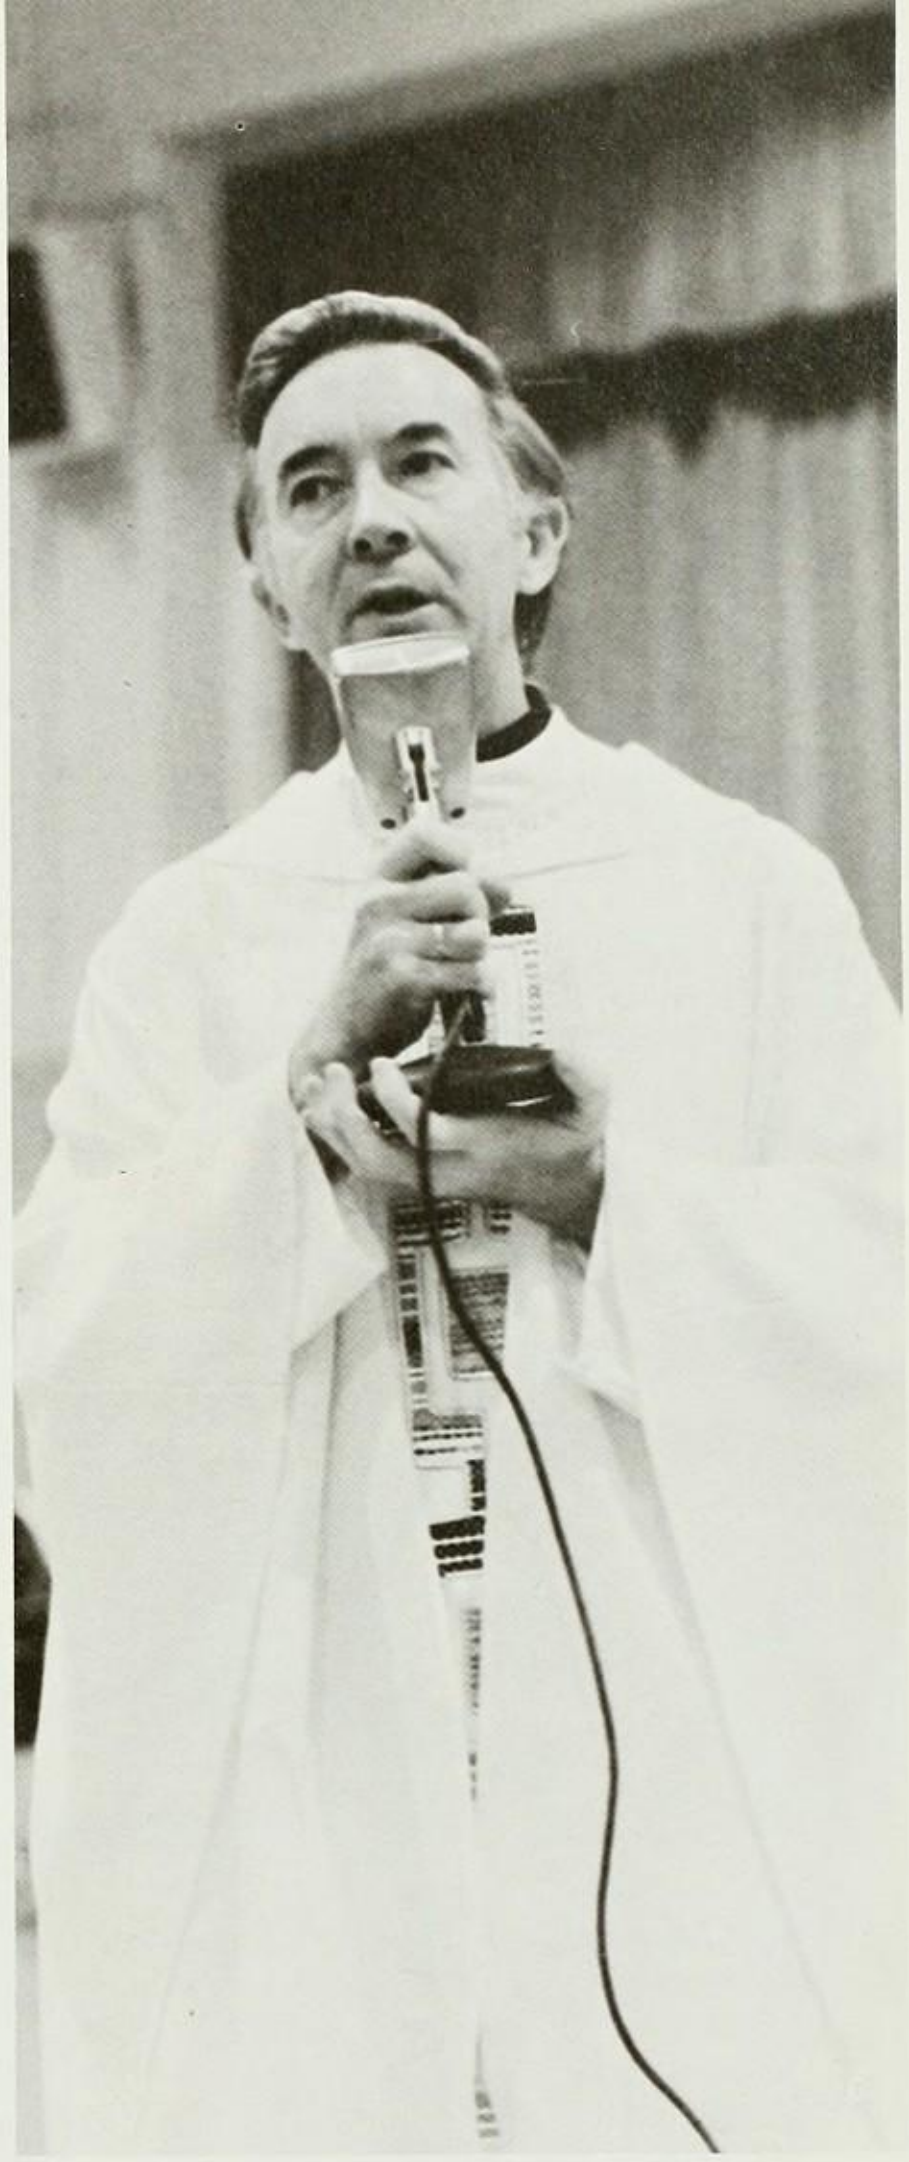
Upon completing their halftime parade caravan, Derozette Nicholson and escort Henoch Carillo move toward their seats of honor with help from Br. Al Glanton and senior, Joe Copeland. 4. Crowd waits; Jon Smith, student body secretary, announces the newly selected court and queen. 5. HOMECOMING COURT: Earskine Reese, Paulette Oliver, Bill Biscoe, Jill DeCoud, Andre Gueno, Danielle Andrews, Derozette Nicholson, Henoch Carillo, Donna Collins and Lance Aubry. 6. Serra's four beautiful homecoming finalists and their queen. 7. Serra's 1976-77 homecoming queen, Cathy Gerard, returns for a final courtly duty, the crowning of Danielle Andrews, her successor. 8. Donna Collins, Derozette Nicholson, Danielle Andrews, Paullette Oliver and Jill DeCoud make their personal speeches to the student body during the Friday afternoon homecoming rally.

Masses: The Gatherings

Three men walk down an impromtu aisle in a church that was a gym hours before. As they walk men on either side sing. And so begins a Serra mass.

New wrinkles have been added to an old but distinguished face. Modern dancing, electric guitars, and synthesizers are but a few of the cosmetic additions made in our masses so that they may relate to our society.





1. Father Philbin and Steve Jackson wish each other peace. 2. Father Philbin, flanked on his right by Father Thome, a missionary from Korea, and on his left by Father Clemens, lifts the Holy Eucharist. 3. Sr. Jean Gustafon leads the Cavaliers in songs. 4. "The Body of Christ" is offered to a Serra student. 5. "Be thankful" was Father Philbin's message during the Thanksgiving mass. 6. The instruments of the mass. 7. Sean Doherty, from St. Cyrcils in Encino, added variety to the mass with his piano and synthesizer.

Serra Serendipity . . . A Day

After two years of drought, this year was marked by the rains. Bringing an end to water rationing, torrents broke with unrelenting strength. Students quickly adapted to this new Californian weather, and studies went on as usual.

Booster's Pitch In

After a home game at Serra, you will very often find a group of men discussing the highlights of the evening. These men are the members of the Booster's Club. The Club's members consist of the fathers of Serra students and alumni. The Booster's basic function is to assist the school in some of its monetary and maintenance needs. This is accomplished through fund raising activities such as casino night and the annual fiesta. The Booster's are also active in athletic events, as ticket sale Monitors and in assisting security patrols. They also help the Mother's Club in the Snack Bar and wherever they are needed. A good way to sum up the support the Booster's give Serra is in that loud cry of "C'mon-n-n Serra!"

Mother's Continue Hard Work And Support Of Serra

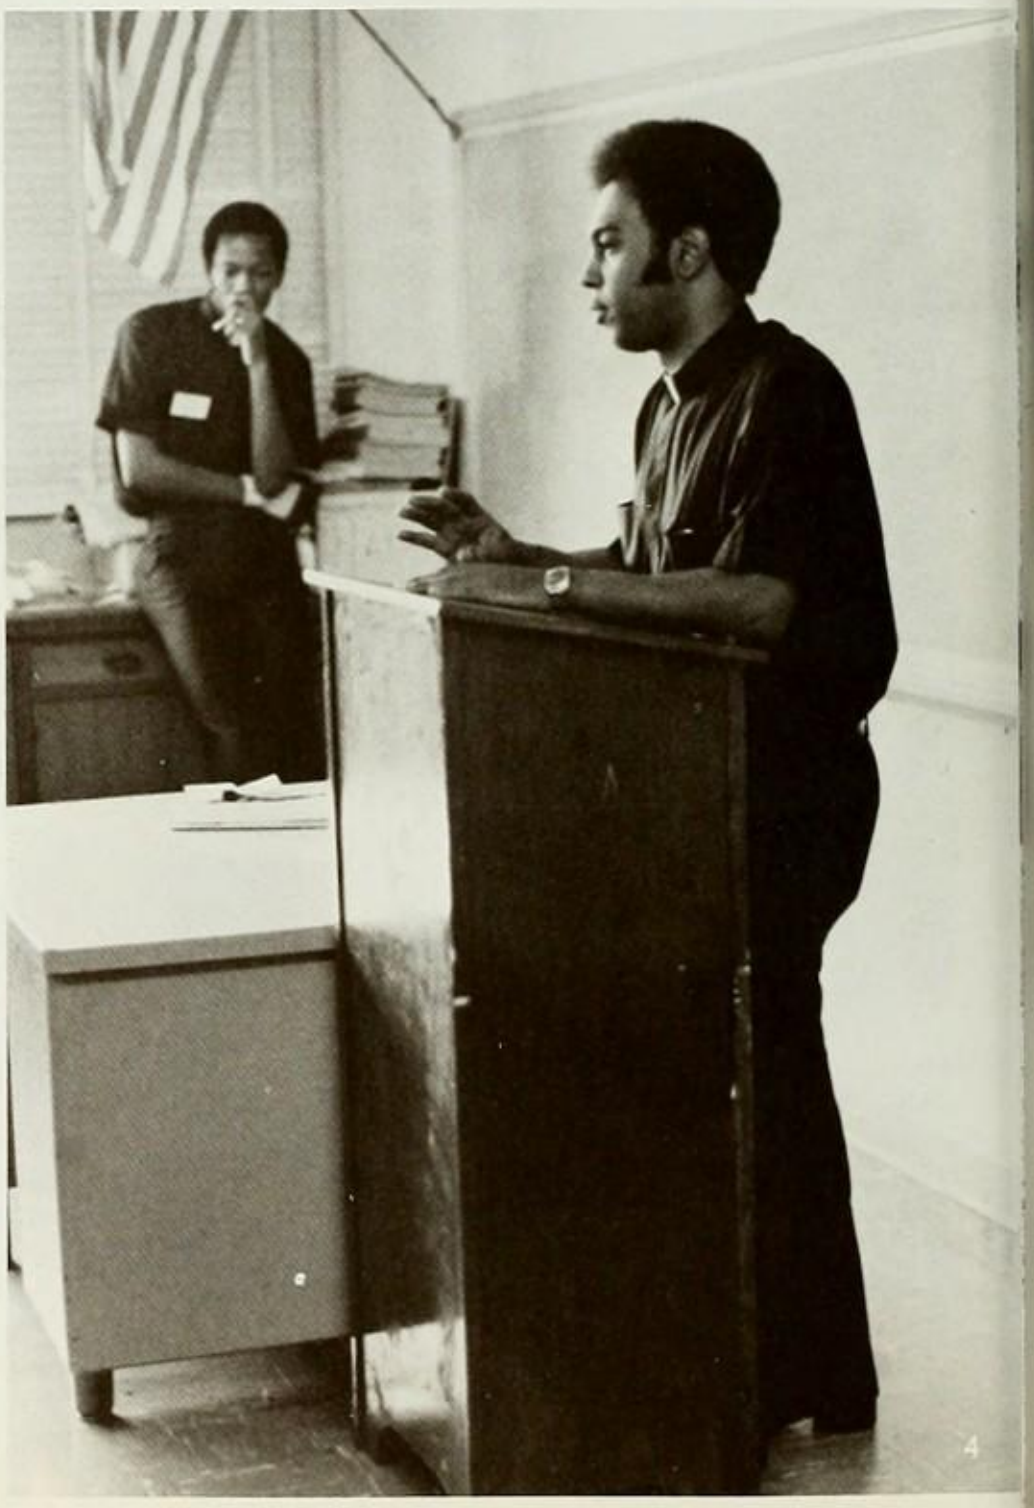
Each week this year a group of nice ladies was seen helping out around Serra. They worked in the snack bar, bingo, and even did some fund raising with the Annual Fashion Show, Parent Dances, and the Fiesta. These helpful women are known to Serra as the Mother's Club. This year the officers were as follows: Tayde Guerro, president; Marie Frank, first vice-president; Pauline Biggers, second vice president; Pat Ricks, recording secretary; Zoila Gutierrez, corresponding secretary; and Laura Collins, treasurer. These ladies made a contribution of their time to help Serra High students. They've all earned gratitude of the faculty and students.

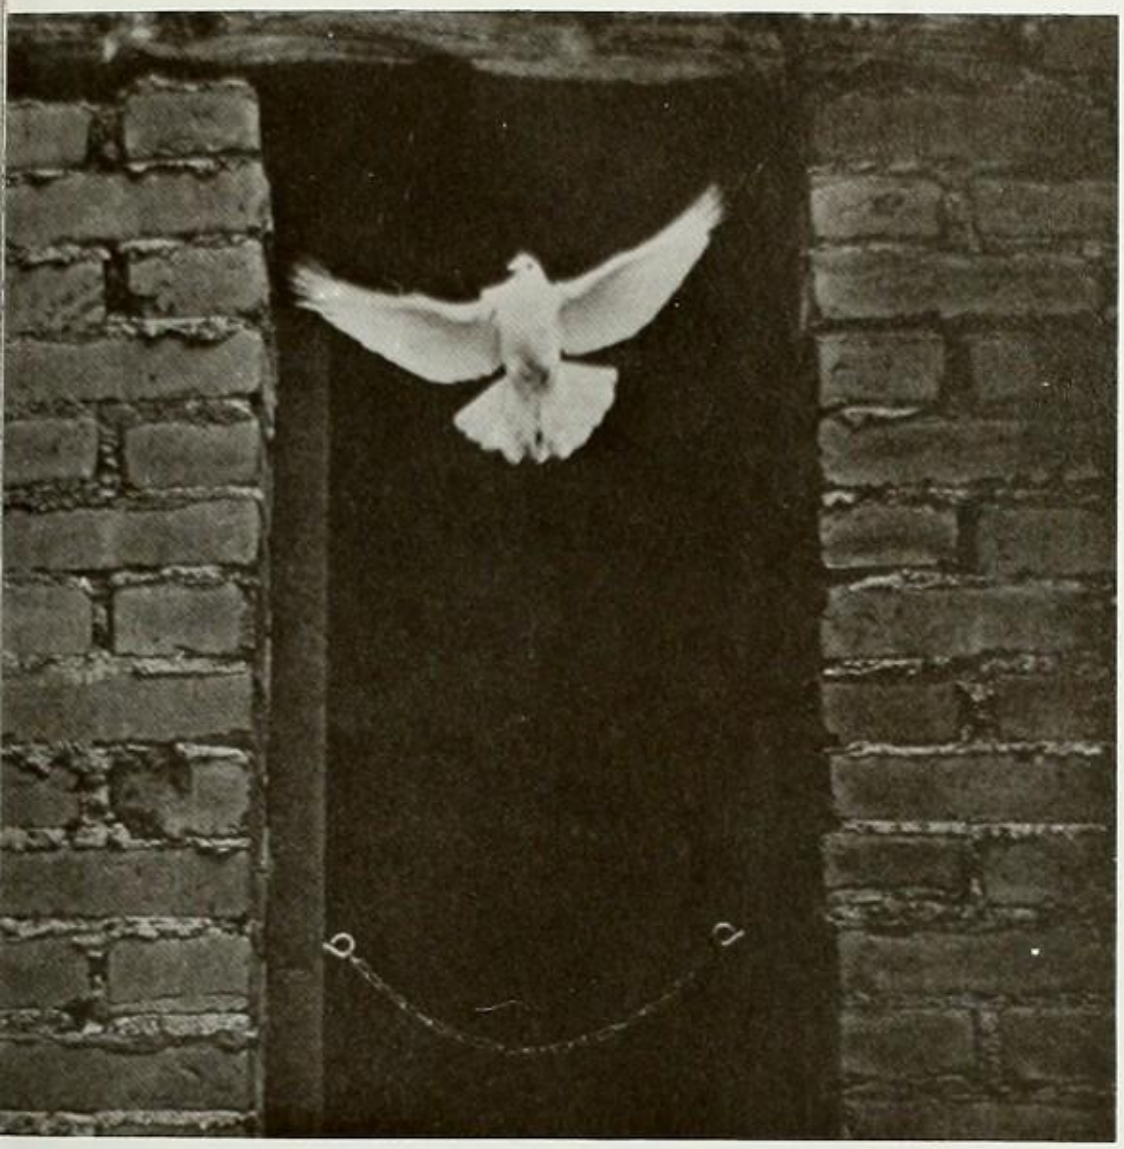
1-4 Fashion Show stars Dwayne Birdsong, Lillian Brown, Darren Casonhua, and Jon Smith. 5. Guests enjoy themselves at the Fall Fashion Show. 6. Mother's Club officers: Mary Duarte, Eva Harts, Laura Collins, Bro. Ludwig, Florida Toussant, Pat Ricks, Zoila Gutierrez, Pauline Biggers, Tayde Guerro, Fr. Clemens, Jane Gleason, Marie Frank, Helen Jeffers, Connie Campa, and Margaret Tate.

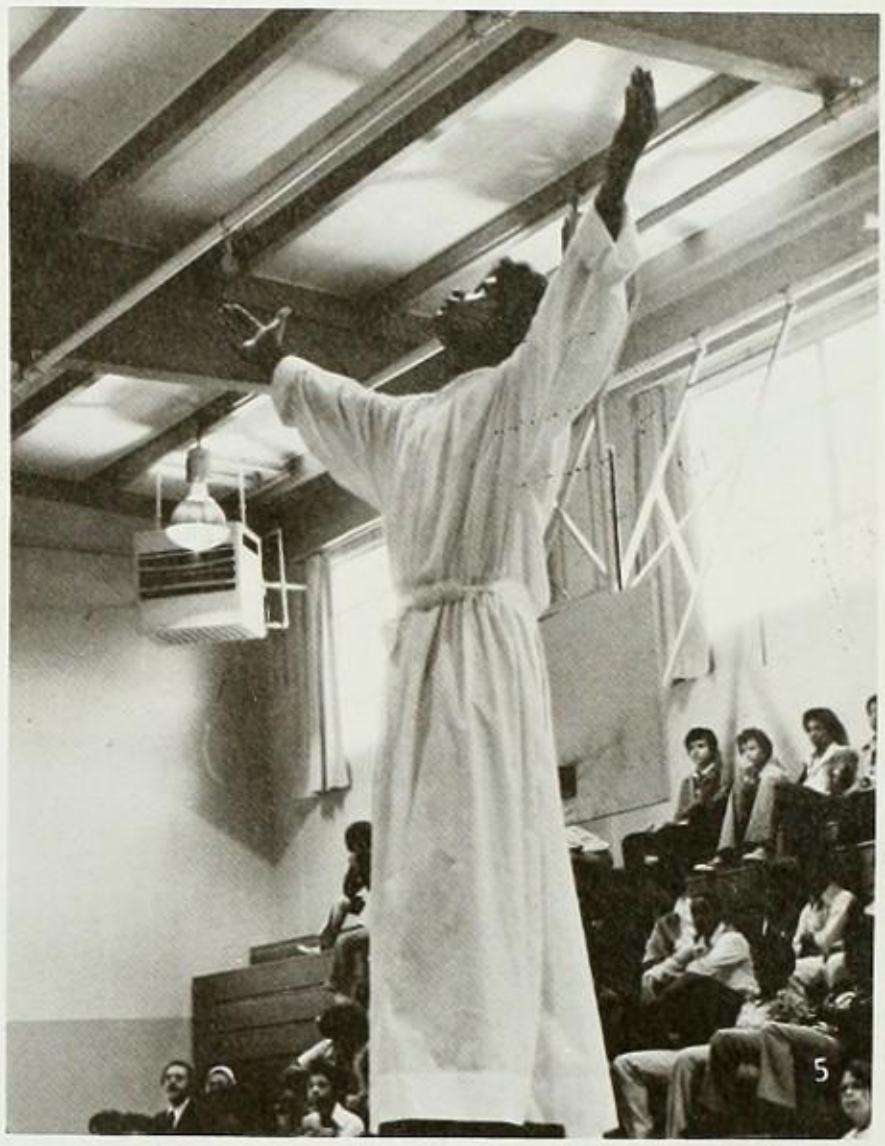
Vocation Week

"I firmly believe that there are many students at Serra who would be excellent Church ministers." Fr. Pat Philbin, head of the Religion Department, thus expressed his concern that the students at Serra consider whether their response to God's presence in their lives might involve a life as a priest or brother. This concern lead to the organization of Vocation Week, a time to learn about the varieties of religious living.

Classes were given over to speakers from various religious organizations. Of special focus was the need within the Church for leaders from the black community. A highlight of the week was the celebration of the liturgy on Friday which was enhanced by an unusual offertory dance and the presence of several guests.







1. Sister Eva Marie, a Sister of Social Services, explains to Juniors and Seniors what being a black religious means to her.
2. Seminarians pause between talks to classes. They are Mike Davis, John Williamson, Allan Roberts and Bryan Wilson.
3. A married, permanent deacon, Mr. Edgar Borne, details his new function in the Church.
4. Mike Davis joins the Freshmen and Sophomore religion classes in hearing from Allan Roberts about the life of a seminarian.
5. Junior, Derrick Metoyer dances his offering during the climatic Vocation Week Mass.
6. Serra students celebrate the invitation to "follow me." The main celebrant at the Friday Mass was Fr. Paul Gopaul, an Edmundite priest and professor of history at Cal State, L.A.

Rallies Score! Assemblies . . . ?

Desmond Thompson, senior, brought an enthusiasm to football rallies that had many upper-classmen and veteran teachers commenting: "Not bad . . . " A positive, fun spirit was alive in the gym.

At this writing there has been no assembly.

Rallies honored a tenacious football team. They brought before us cheerleaders from neighboring schools. They sparked spontaneous dancing and inter-divisional yelling matches.

1. Senior Desmond Thompson prepares crowd for arrival of varsity football team. 2. Spontaneous star dancer Kieth Boyd. 3. Cheerleaders enliven rally before important C.I.F. contest against Verbun Dei. 4. Serra student body awaits pep-talk by Fr. Clemens.

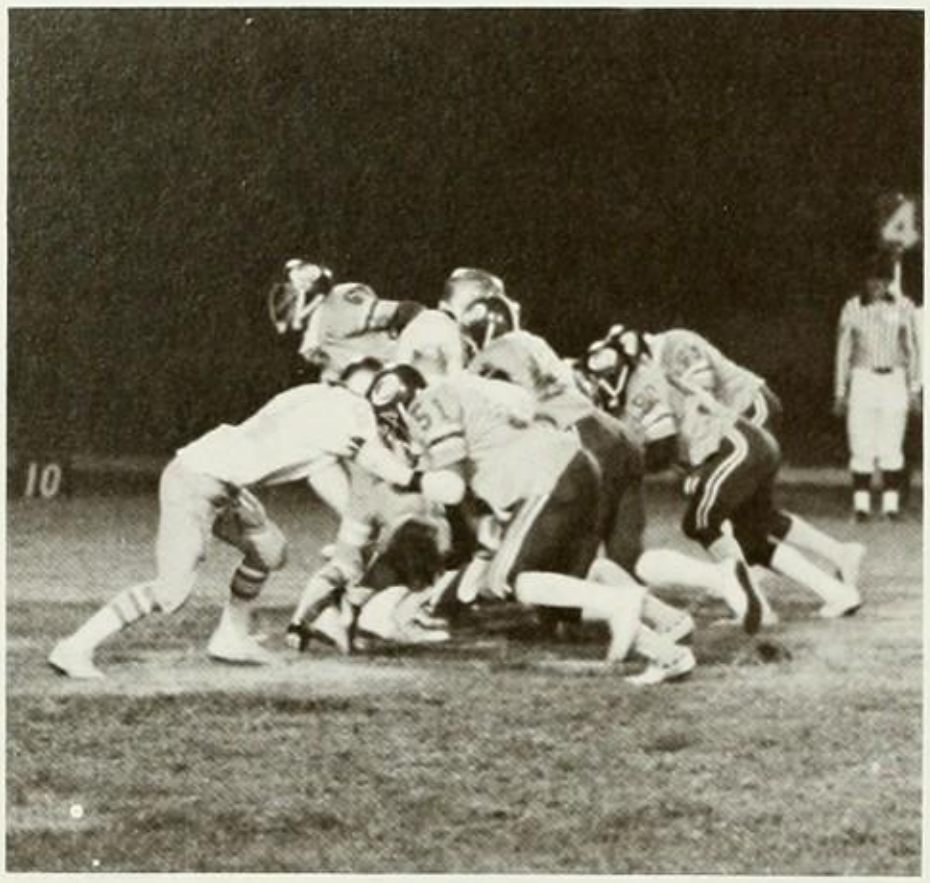
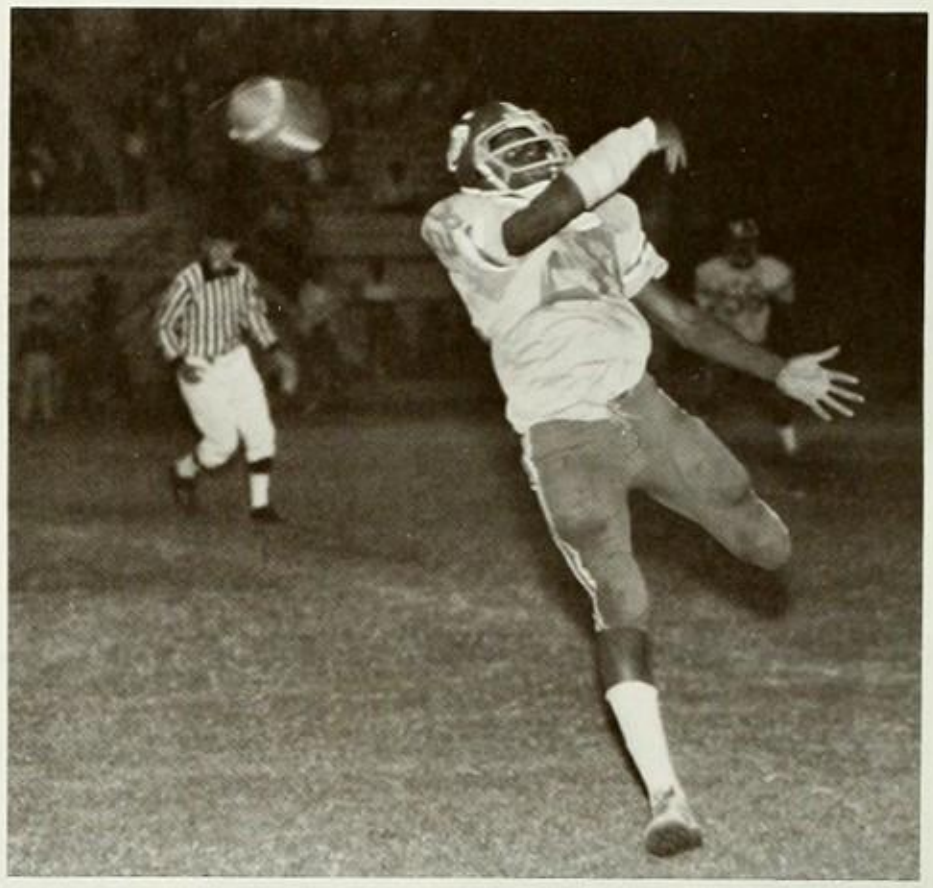
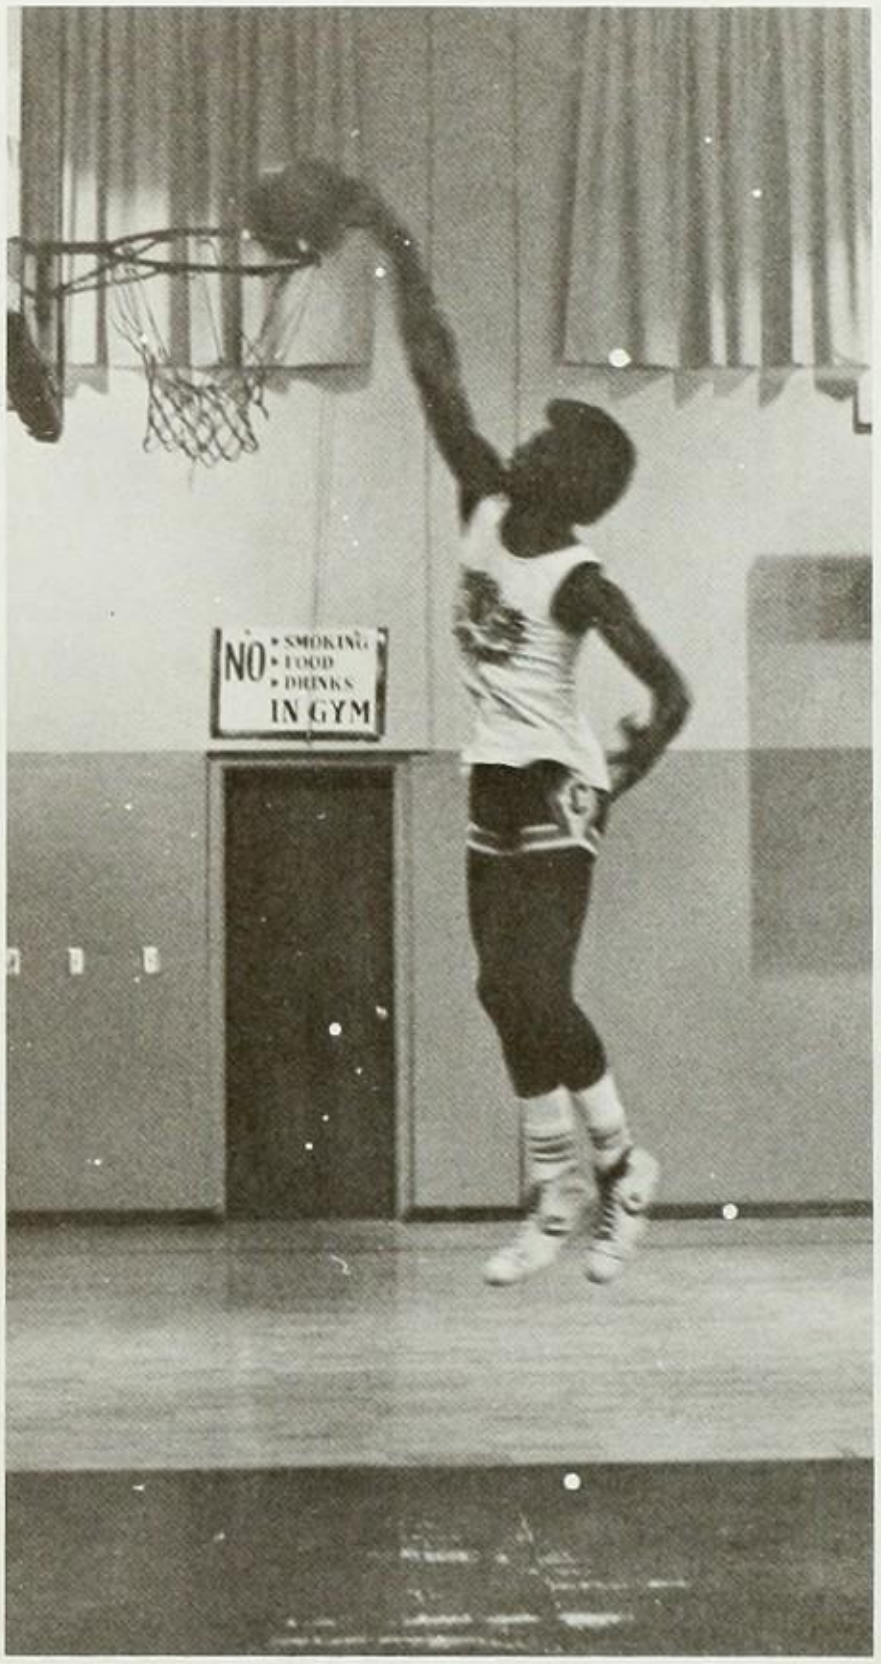
Sports







After over 25 years of existence, Serra has made its mark in inter-scholastic prep sports. This high school of approximately 550 students is the home base for 7 varsity, 7 junior varsity, and 2 freshmen sports — sports than range from baseball to volleyball.

This year the Cavaliers boast of their most successful varsity football teams, an productive basketball program (a program whose varsity team was predicted to be #1 in its league this year), and the returning 1977 Camino Real League Volleyball Champs. Although some of our teams were not as prosperous as others they all possessed that one indistinguishable quality that makes Serra team standout, persistence.

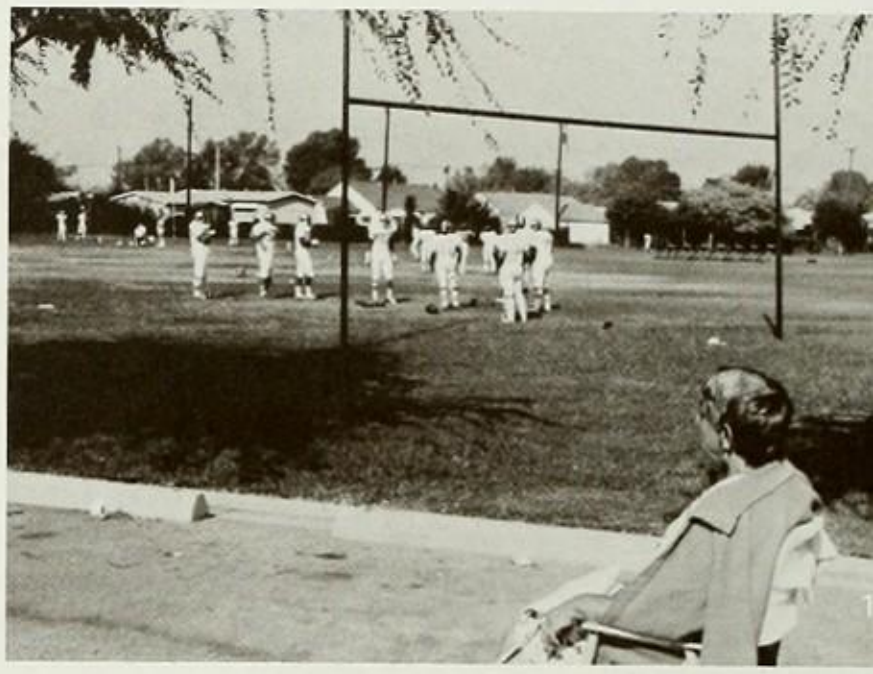
This will not be the Cavaliers last year as a leader of prep sports in Southern California. For with every new class, there is the raw material for a true Cavalier, a Serra athlete.

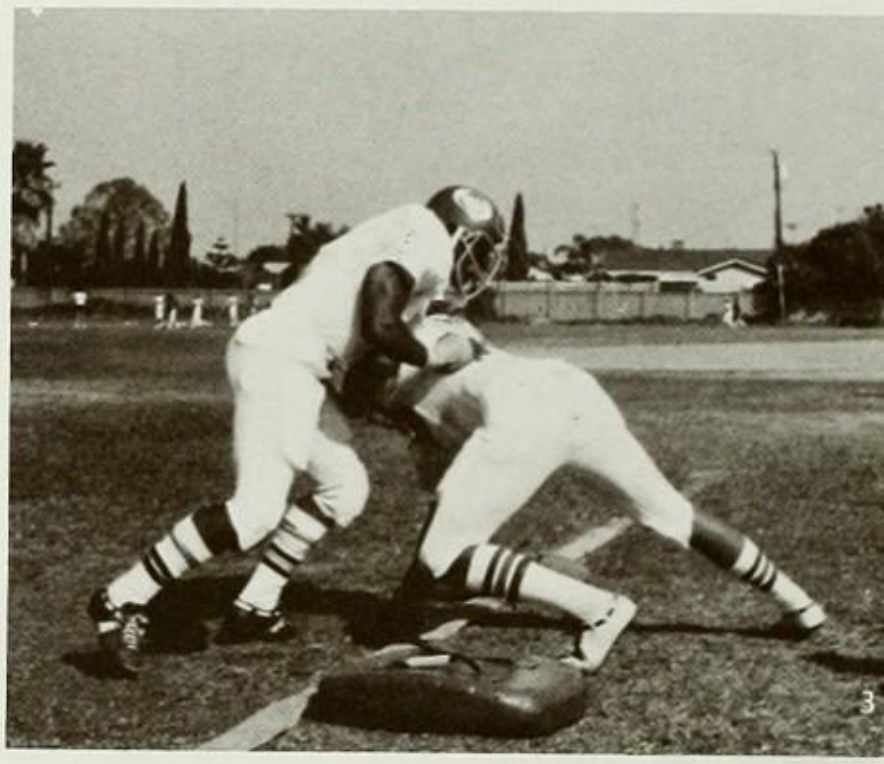
Pride Burns Throughout The Varsity Football Squad

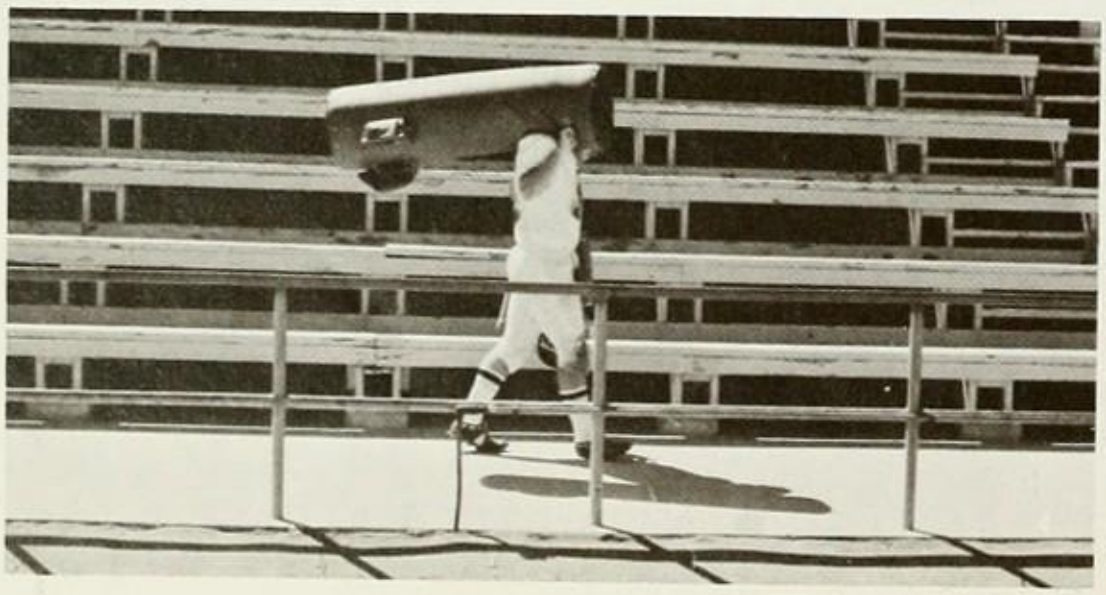
It's quality that counts, not quantity. This adage described this year's surprising varsity football squad. With Steve DeCoud returning as the only all-league performer from last year the team seemed to be in for a long and frustrating season.

Not so. Under the tutelage of head mentor Gale Hipes and assistants Gene Simon and John Campa the squad, though few in number and small in size, kept alive Serra's tradition of quality and discipline.

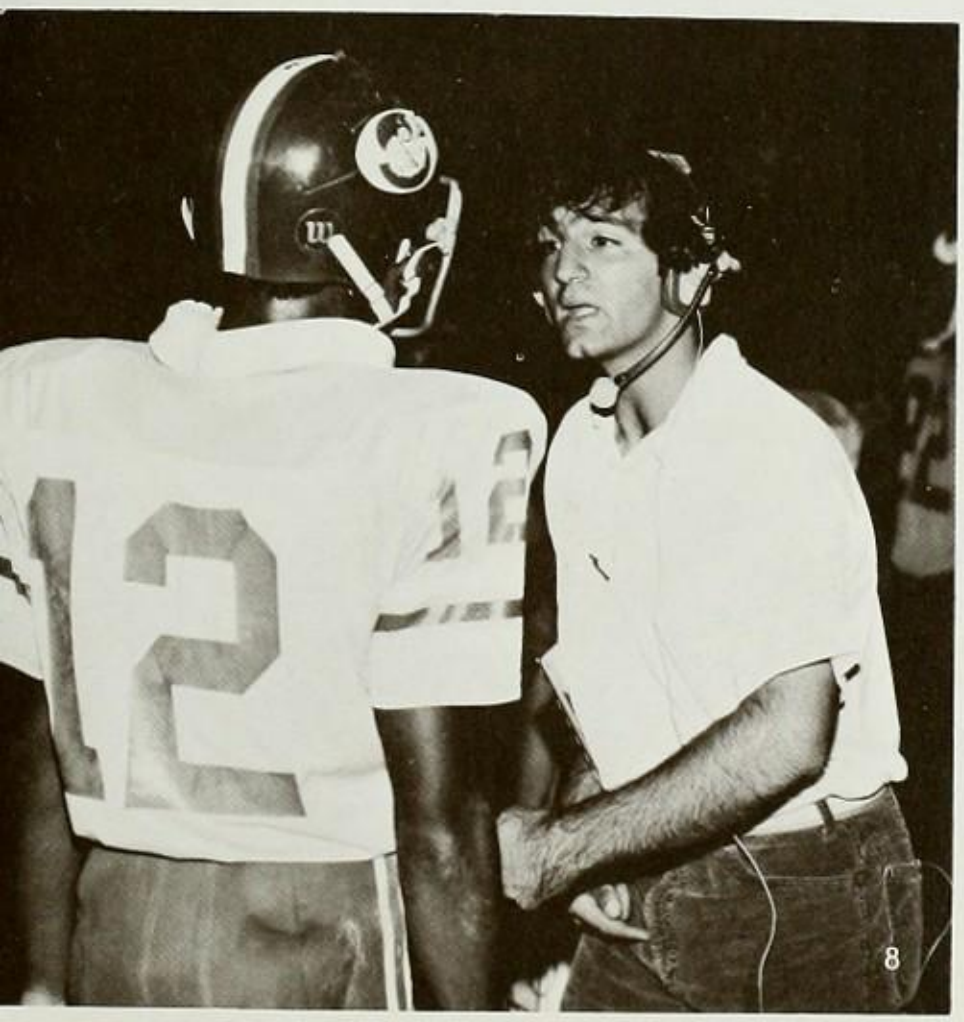
With a 1-1 preseason tally and impressive wins over Verbum Dei (defending league champs), St. Bernard's and Salesian, the Cavaliers next faced arch-rival Bishop Montgomery to decide first place in the Camino Real League. They envisioned a league title but, as had happened so often in the past, they failed to handle the Knights and dropped to second place. After a Cantwell tie and a surprising loss to St. Anthony's Serra needed a victory over Murphy to have any chance of making the playoffs. This time the Cavaliers withstood the pressure by winning and finished 5-3-1 — a tie for third place. Their hopes of a league title were gone and a chance to be in the playoffs for only the third time in history depended on the flip of a coin . . .

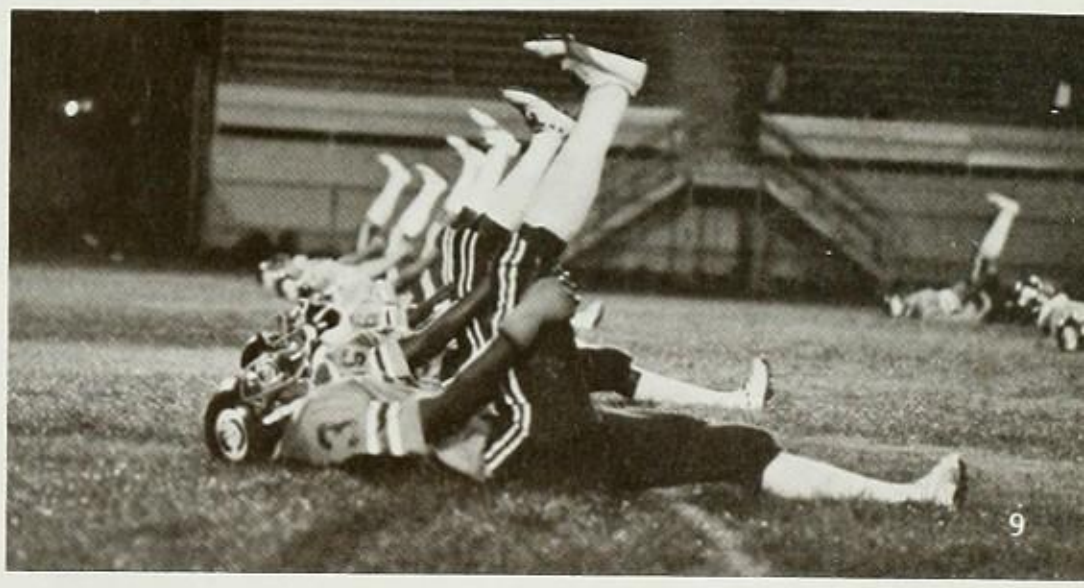






Preparation For The Games





1. The vigil. Angie Kretzschmar watches every Serra practice. 2. The teacher. Coach John Campa instructs on proper blocking technique. 3. The players. Fine points lead to a successful year. 4. Mike Ricks — senior halfback — ponders upcoming practice session. 5. Greg A. Washington and Gerald Barbee pack for trip to Santa Maria. 6. Mr. Matt Lyons, Coaches Paul Bartasavich and John Campa provide information from their tower view of the homecoming game against Bishop. 7. Junior varsity manager Greg A. Washington attends to thankless but important task. 8. Serra suffered a tough loss to Bishop despite intense effort by Coach Gene Simon and number 12 — senior Tony Bryant. 9. Pre-game stretch.

Anthony Tate gains 15 yards, with the help of senior guard Greg Southern, before running into Bishop linebacker Matt Sandaval (63) in the Homecoming game. 4. The Mighty Cavalier Offense is ready to converge on a tough Channel Island defense. C.I. won the season opener 34-14. 5. Q.B. Phil Smith just gets off a pass before being hit by a hard rushing Bishop defender. 6. Senior split end Ollie Williams is robbed of a reception by Bishop linebacker Matt Sandaval, who intercepted the pass.

Cavaliers Move To Playoffs

. . . a flip of a coin and entry into the playoffs for only the third time in Serra's history. For many on the team the high point of the year was the long trip north to Santa Maria. The fact that the trip ended in victory and a promise of a second-round game against Antelope Valley only sweetened the excursion. Antelope Valley overpowered Serra but coaches and players alike looked upon their season as a success. Round two of the CIF playoffs had only been reached once before by a very strong '74-'75 squad. The '77 Serra team did it with 27 men.

1. Antelope Valley's junior tailback Mike Tolliver gains hard earned yards during C.I.F. quarter final game. The Antelopes won and went to the Northwestern Conference Championship game. 2. Junior tailback Clifton Johnson follows lead blocker Anthony Tate around right end on power sweep against the Antelopes. 3. Lee Derrico is cut short of a big gain by Serra free safety Kevin Dikes. 4. Cavelier Cagers Make Their Mark In '78

The Serra varsity basketball team of 1977-78 was expected to better last years record of 23-4, and this was evident when they were rated 8th in C.I.F. pre-season polls.

Unfortunately, an opening game loss to 3rd ranked Muir started the season off on the wrong foot. The Cavaliers had disappointing performances in the Pacific Shores, Beverly Hills, and Inglewood tournaments. (They went into all three seeded #1).

Returning starters, Mike Zeno, Joe Copeland, and Barry Walker provided the fire power and leadership for the Cavaliers as they began league play.

The team pulled together to defeat St. Bernards 61-55 in the first game. After easy wins over Cantwell and Salesian, they fell prey to Verbum Dei, the #1 team in the C.I.F. and the nation. They closed out the first round of league action with a 4-1 record and sole possession of second place.

They started off the second round with a tough victory over St. Bernards. With four games and a rematch with Verbum Dei remaining in the league race, the Cavaliers hope to emerge #1. They will then enter the C.I.F. playoffs with a chance of becoming the C.I.F. 4-A basketball champions.

Varsity Volleyball

Varsity Volleyball, 1978—A young junior-dominated team that quested for a fifth straight league championship. New energy, new enthusiasm, new faces; but the same old result: camaraderie and success. Cheerleaders

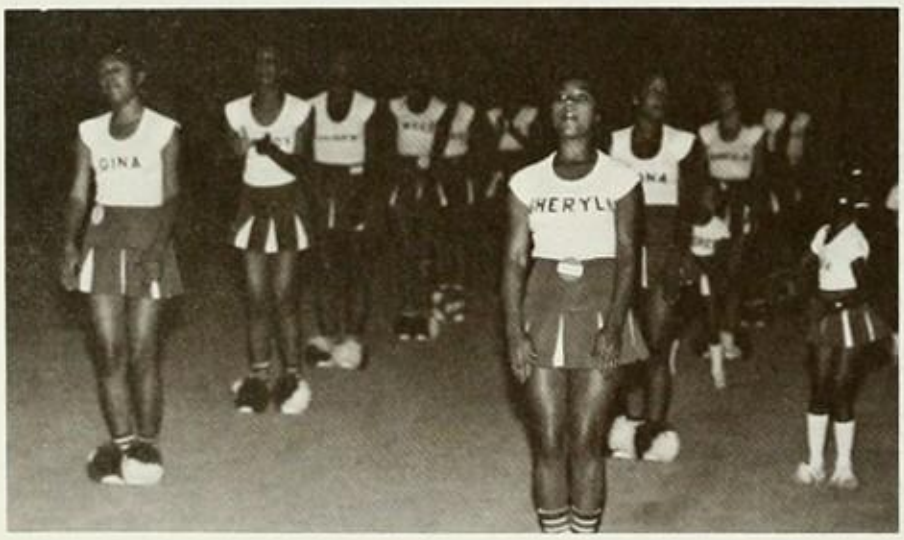
The Cavalierettes were seniors Danielle Andrews, Shiela Boguille, Jackie Jones, Sherlyn Jones; juniors Julie Casonhua, Janet DeCoud, Donna Johnson, Gina Mercadel, Robin Richardsons; and sophomores Demese Black, Yamisse Joshua, Daria LeSassier, Tina Kelly, Tracy Heran.

During football halftimes and basketball timeouts, Serra fans were entertained by the rhythmical numbers presented by the Cavalier cheerleaders. Time and again our cheerleaders outperformed and outcheered their opponents with imaginative and original formations. Led by Danielle Andrews from St. Michael, the Cavalierettes made the performance off the field worth watching.



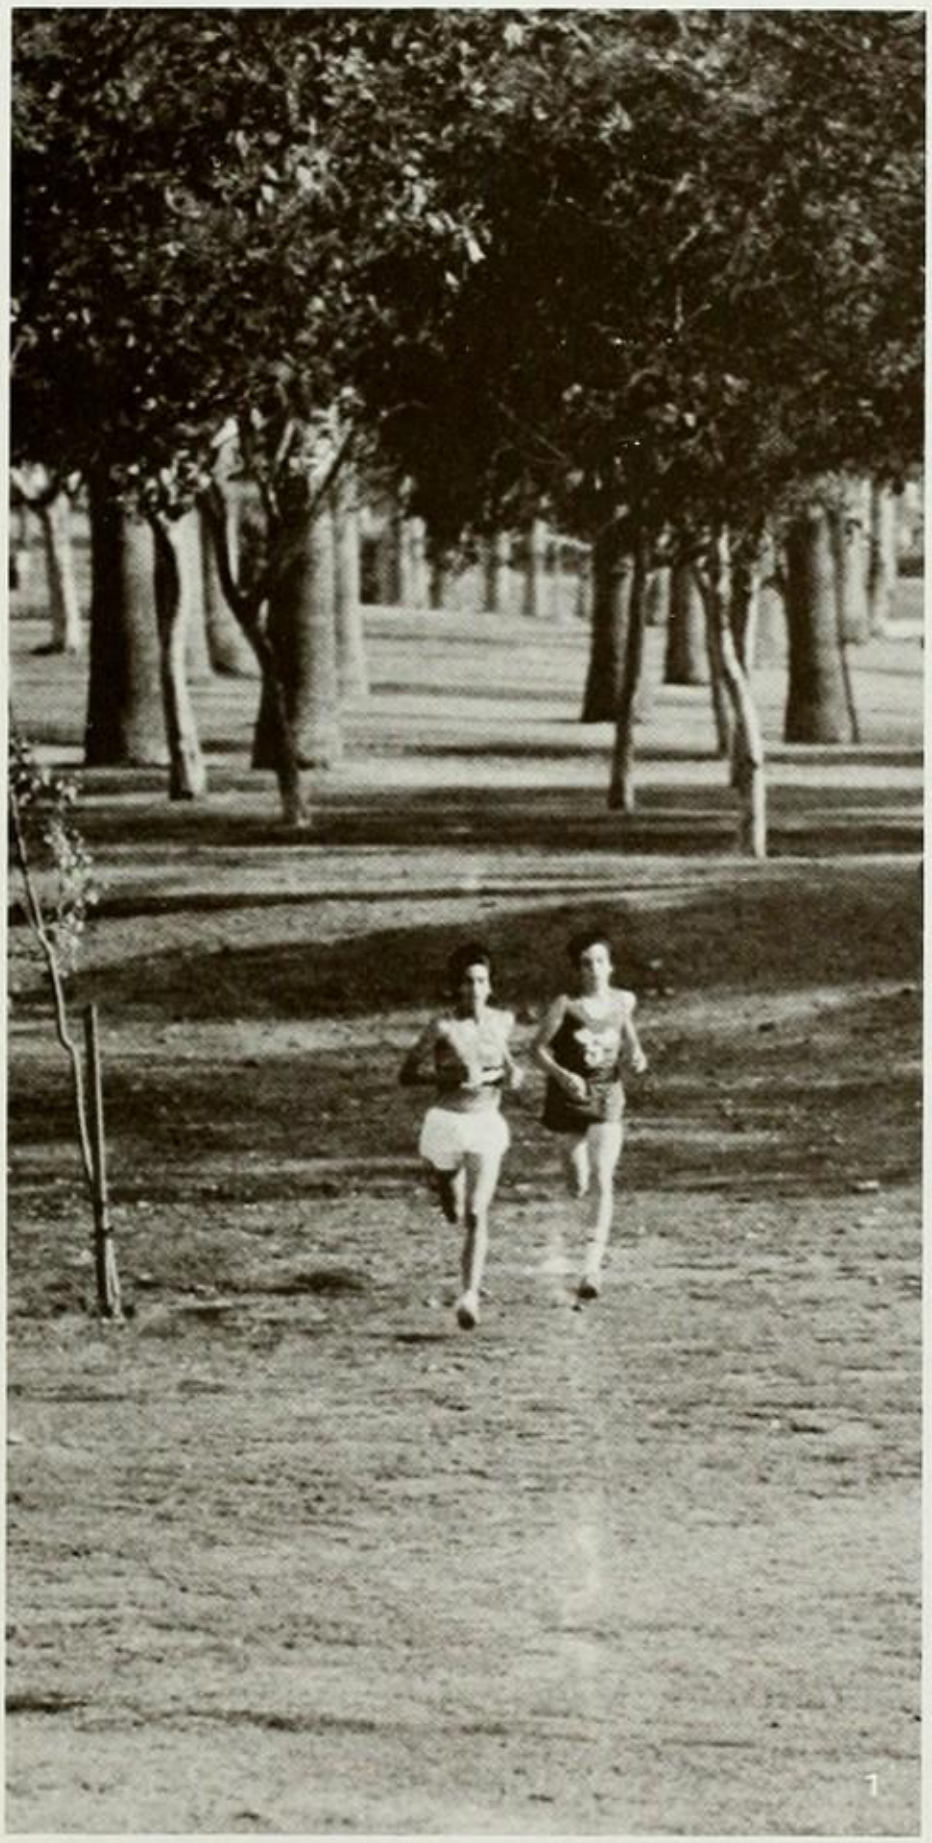
Cross-Country: The Notorious Nineteen

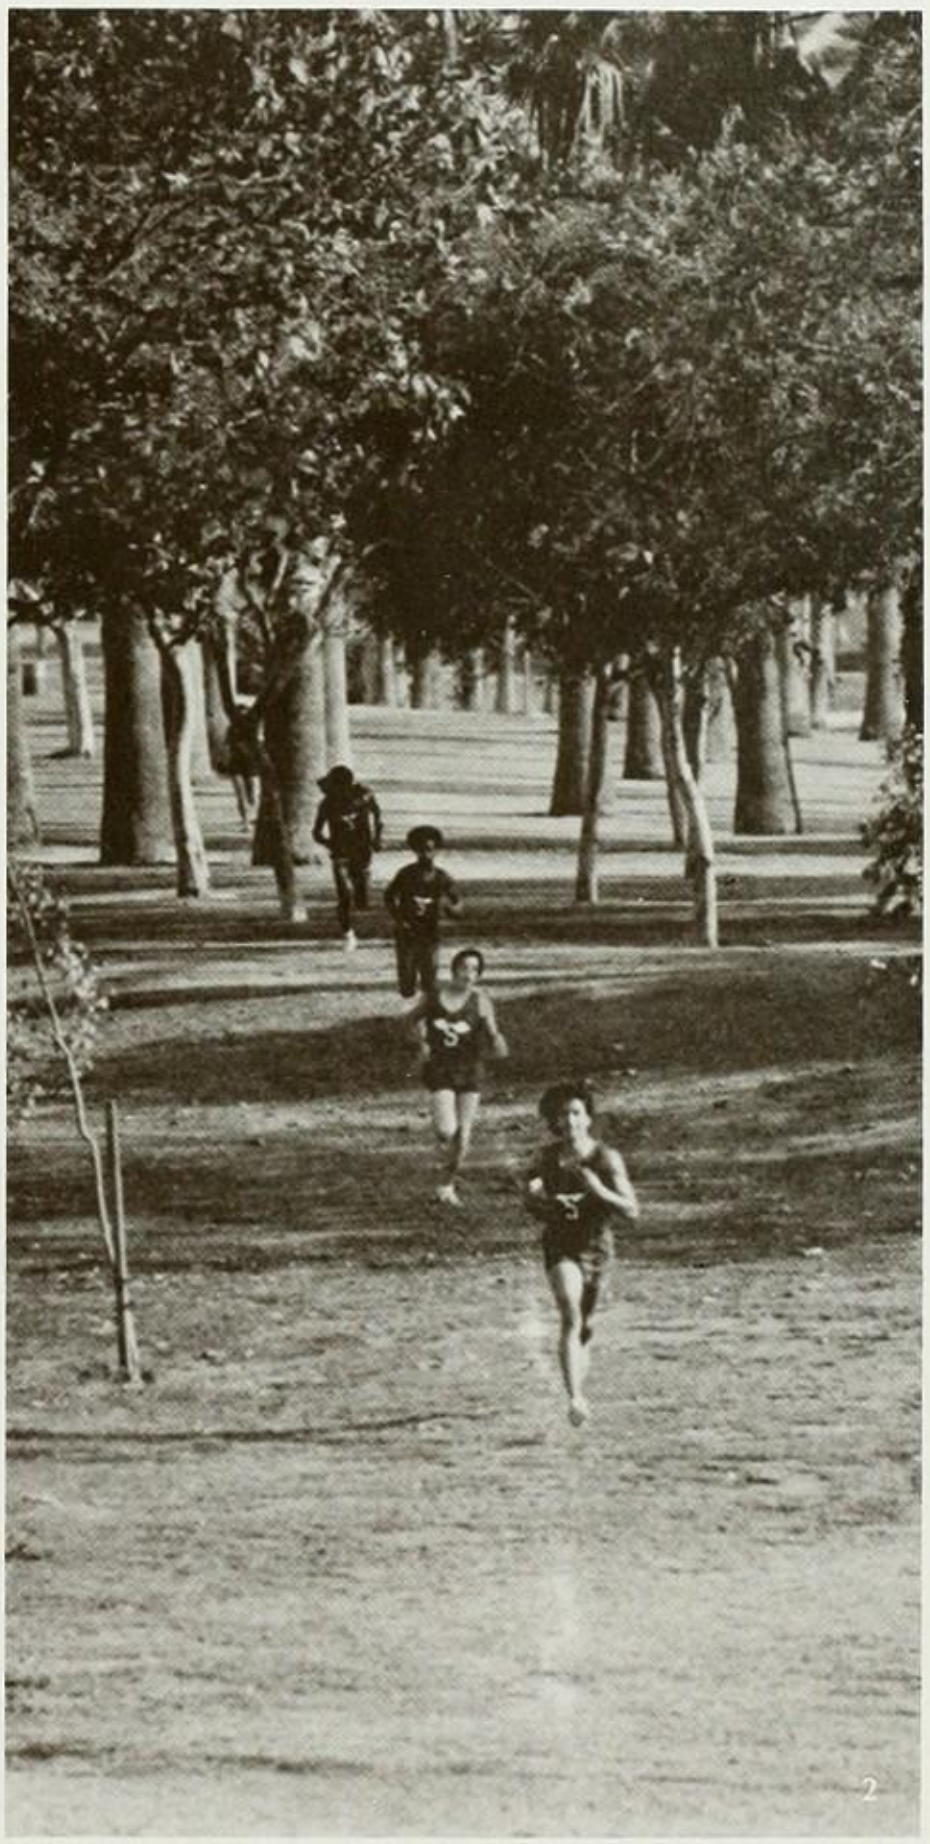
The long process of developing the runner's mental attitude and physical development to its full potential was a long arduous task undertaken by Coach Gary Gall.

In just a few months the third new coach in three years organized a new herd of runners by emphasizing "unification"-running as a team.

The season was spent developing talent, endurance, and friendship. By creating the right attitude toward practice the team set the pace for future cross-country teams to build upon.

1. John Powell battles a Salesian for fourth place along the scenic three mile course at Alondra Park.
2. The remainder of the varsity team pulls up behind J. Powell in a loose pack. Although on the shorter end of this mini-marathon, the members of this team never called it quits, though it could have been easy to do so.





Coach Gall's first step and main concern was to get runners out for the team. He believes he has accomplished this to some extent by increasing the team to 19 members.

There was a well balanced attack this year consisting of 4 seniors, 4 juniors, 5 sophmores, and 6 freshmen. Among these athletes there were several outstanding leaders.

The most valuable runner of the varsity team was John "Spyder" Powell who came in first against Murphy, second against St. Bernards and Cantwell, and fourth against Salesian.

The varsity team was further strengthened by returning lettermen Tim McKindley, David Powell, Frank Molina, and Levi L. White.

The standouts among the underclassmen were juniors Randy Bowles and Rick Duarte, sophomore Arnold Fisk, and freshman Rene Fisk.

Varsity Soccer: Another Season

In just the third season of soccer at Serra under the new leadership of Coach Ed Duarte and James Mason the Serra soccer team, rated a lucky fifth, surprised the CRL teams by threatening for league championship early in the season. In the see-saw battle for the championship the Cavaliers experienced victory and defeat in a well balanced league.

Seniors that strengthened the team were power player Darryl Gradington and three year lettermen Julian Balderas and Charlie Montano.

Among the prominent underclassmen were Ulmar Palacios, Rick Duarte, Mike Riveria, Rick Burleson, Randy Bowles, and Bobby Spann.

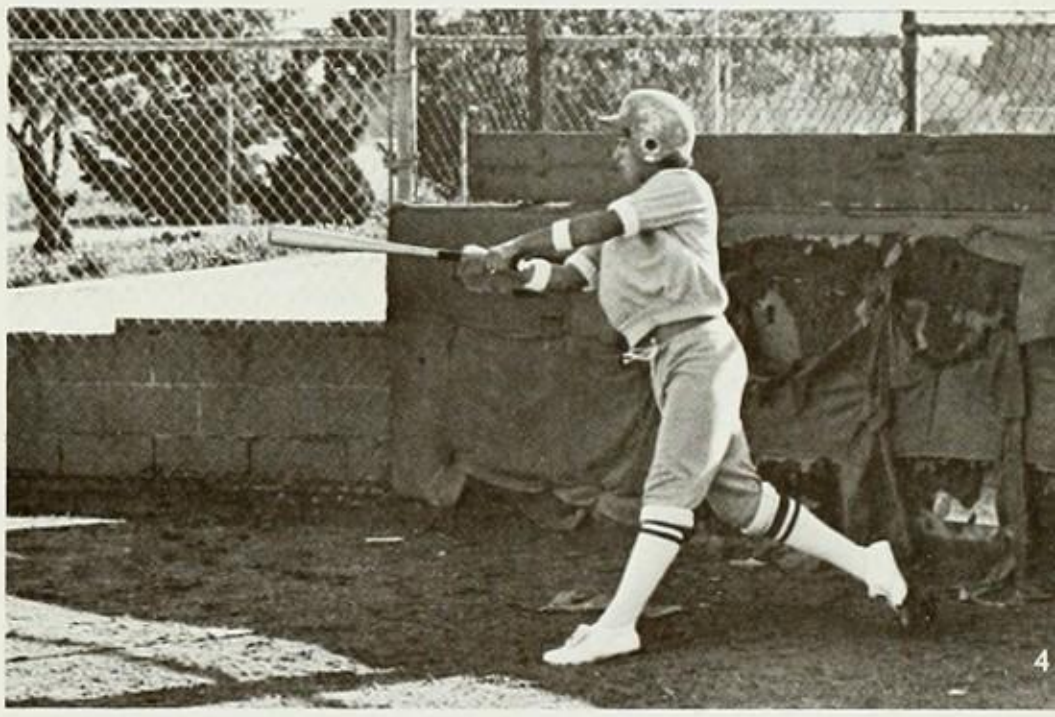
4. Super frosh Ulmar Palacios outmanuevers a Murphian in a Serra victory.
5. Veteran of one season junior Rick Duarte breaks away with only shadows following.
6. Powerhouse Darryl Gradington moves in for a would-be score against Murphy.
7. As Charlie Montano looks on, Randy Bowles emraces Bobby Spann after Spann made a score in a laugher against Murphy.
8. Senior Charlie "Moe" Montano crosses the field in an attempt to evade his pursuer.
9. Senior Darryl Gradington positions himself between the ball and a Murphian as he moves down the field.

1. Serra goalie Cedric Collins lies motionless after getting the wind knocked out of him as Bobby Spann and a St. Bernard player look on.
2. With the position of goalie as of yet undetermined in pre-season practice, Rick Duarte tries out by making this leaping punching save.
3. Charlie Montano and Ulmar Palacio counter a move by a Murphy player attacking.
4. Bobby Spann and Darryl Gadington intercept a ball deep in St. Bernard territory in first half action.

Varsity Baseball

This year the Varsity baseball team has come under the management of Tom Hall. Manager Hall with assistant Paul Bartasvich tried to build around the 5 or 6 returning veterans from last year's squad.

Despite the fact that Serra's baseball program has not been in the black the last few years, Manager Hall was still optimistic about his teams chances in the league. In his words he expects "a successful season, a winning season."



1. Senior Emery Guillory warms up during pre-season practice.
2. Assistant Bartasvich helps one of the varsity players improve his swing.
3. Manager Hall points to some players to take their positions in batting drills.
4. Veteran Kevin Harris shows good form as he hits one through the middle in a practice session.

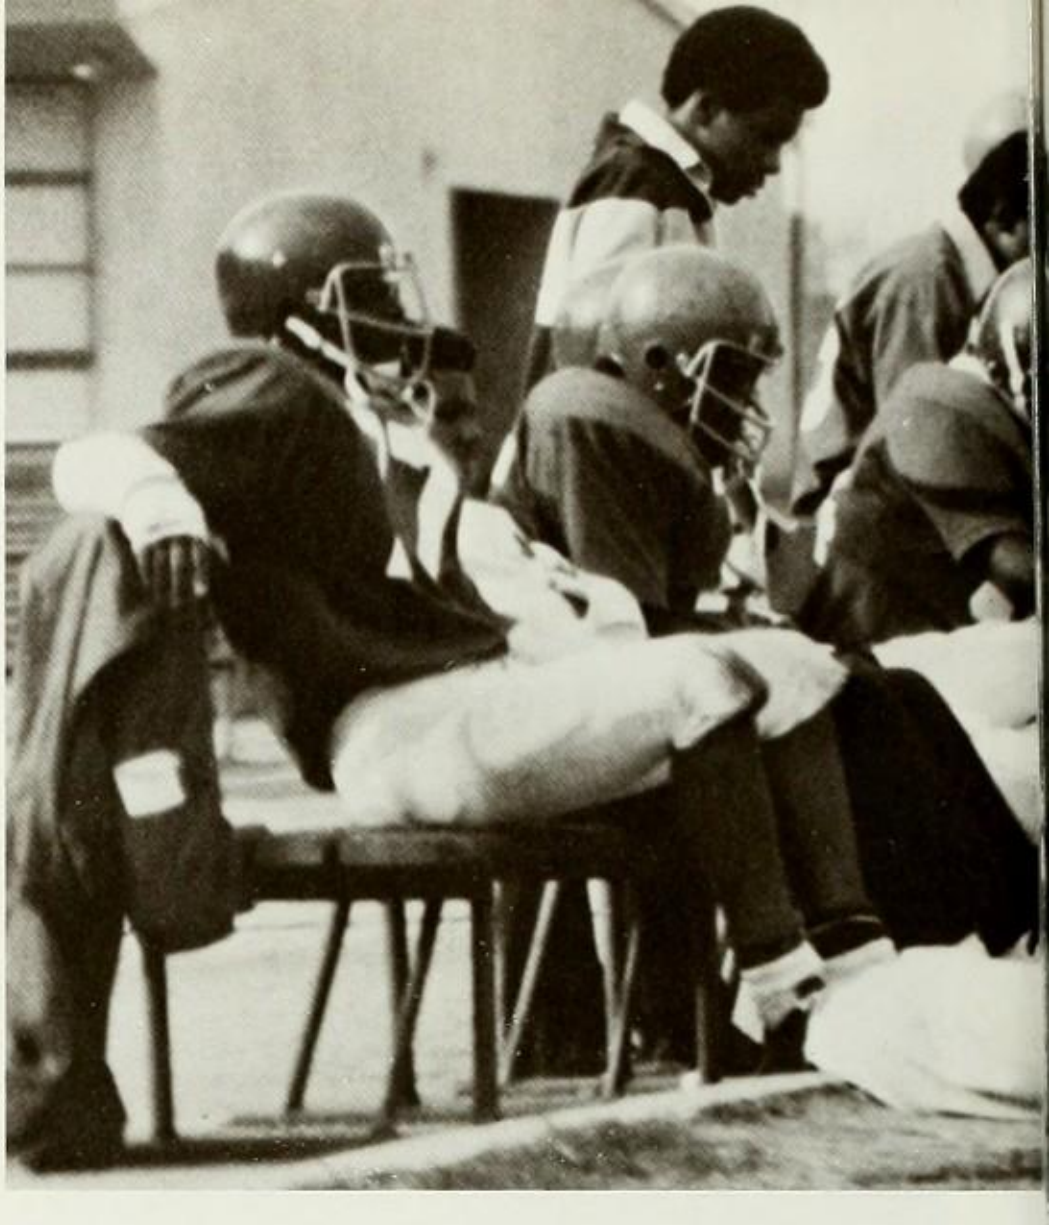
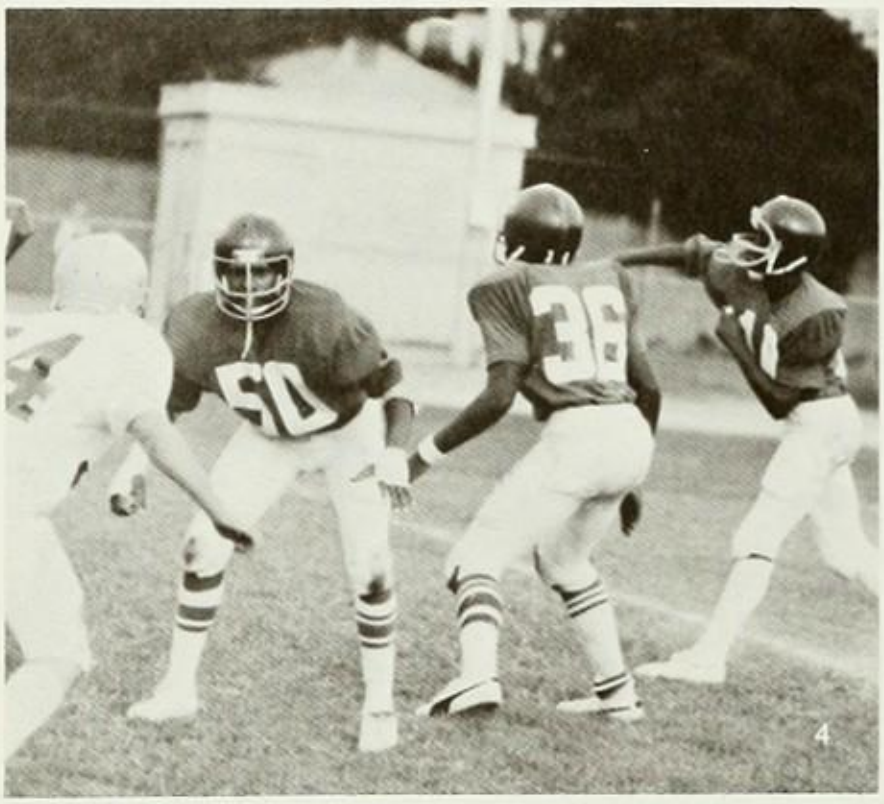
1. In a relaxed mood, Cavaliers await their next turn to bat.
2. In the second inning of their first league game against Salesian, catcher Joe Ross and second baseman Andy Trevino confer with pitcher Charlie Montano on a difficult out.
3. During pre-game warm-ups senior Charlie Montano warms up with a fast ball.
4. Montano hurls one to first in an unsuccessful attempt to pick off a Salesian player.
5. With the umpire leaning on his back and the batter about to step into the ball, senior Joe Ross cooly awaits the arrival of the ball.
6. Bat and ball are on a collision course as Darryl Green tries to go to right field.





The Serra J.V. Football team had a very surprising year. Under coaches Andy Anderson and Bob De Allen, the team recorded a 3-3-1 mark which placed them third in the Camino Real League. The team had a lot of spirit and showed it by winning some very important games. They beat Bishop Montgomery 26-0 and sneaked by Salesian 7-0. Coach Anderson had this to say about the season: "I was very impressed with my players this year. They showed pride and dignity. Most of the team will move up to varsity next year."

J.V.'s Hold Their Own

1. The J.V. offense is ready to go against Mountain View. 2.Serra's defense takes a break after a job well done. 3. Duane Birdsong (32) breaks for an easy touchdown. 4. Herald Waldon throws for a first down against Calabassas. 5. Number 22 is Dominic Simmons; he returns a punt against Mountain View. 6. Coach Anderson gives defensive plays to Dennis Mc Millon. 7. Craig Baines (41) makes the tackle assisted by Mc Millon.

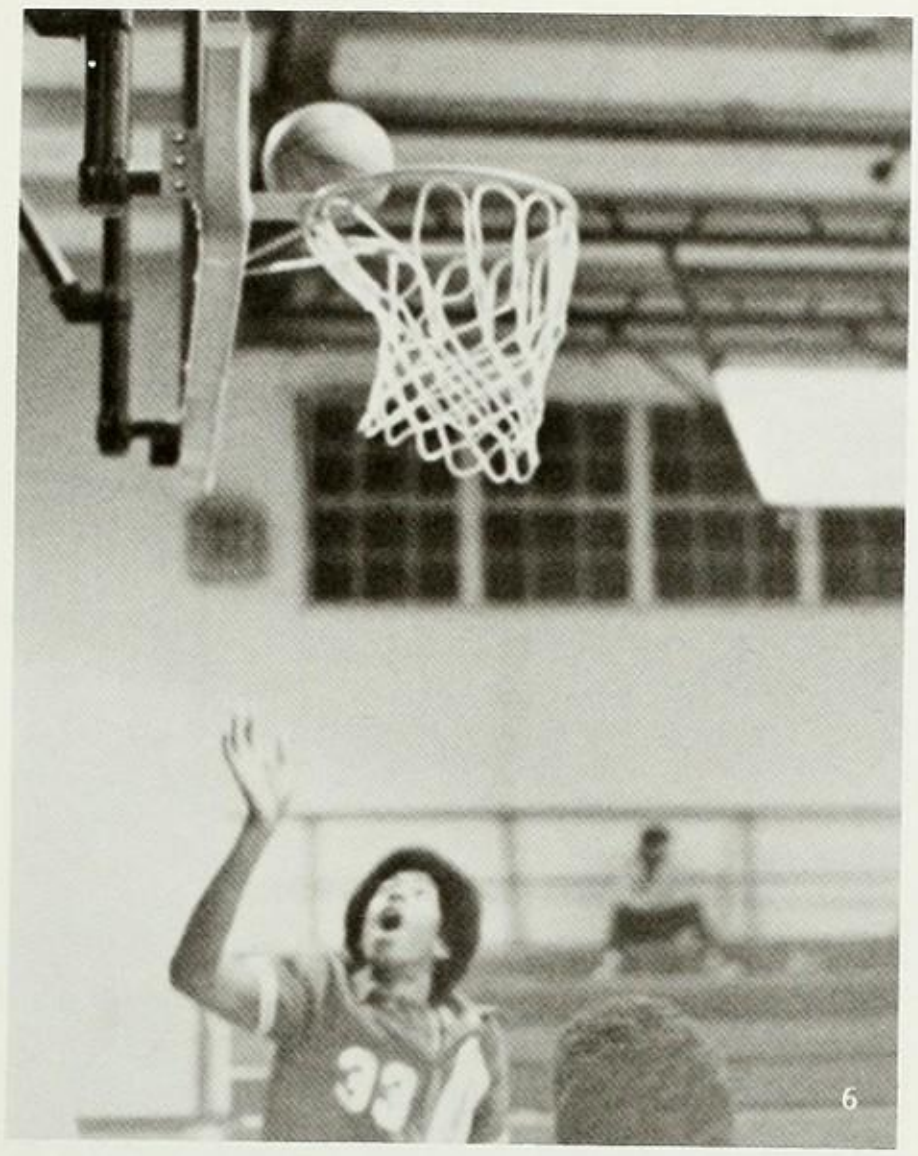
J.V. Basketball

After 3 weeks of league competition, the Cavalier J.V. team sported an impressive 6-1 record. Beating opponents by as much as 20 points the J.V.'s upheld and molded a tradition of a winning basketball program.

Head coach Mallory Matthews and assistants Jim Masterson and Art Lyons had only 2 returning members from last year's squad to build upon. This lack of experience as well as size did not hinder these Cavaliers from attaining the number 2 spot in their league.

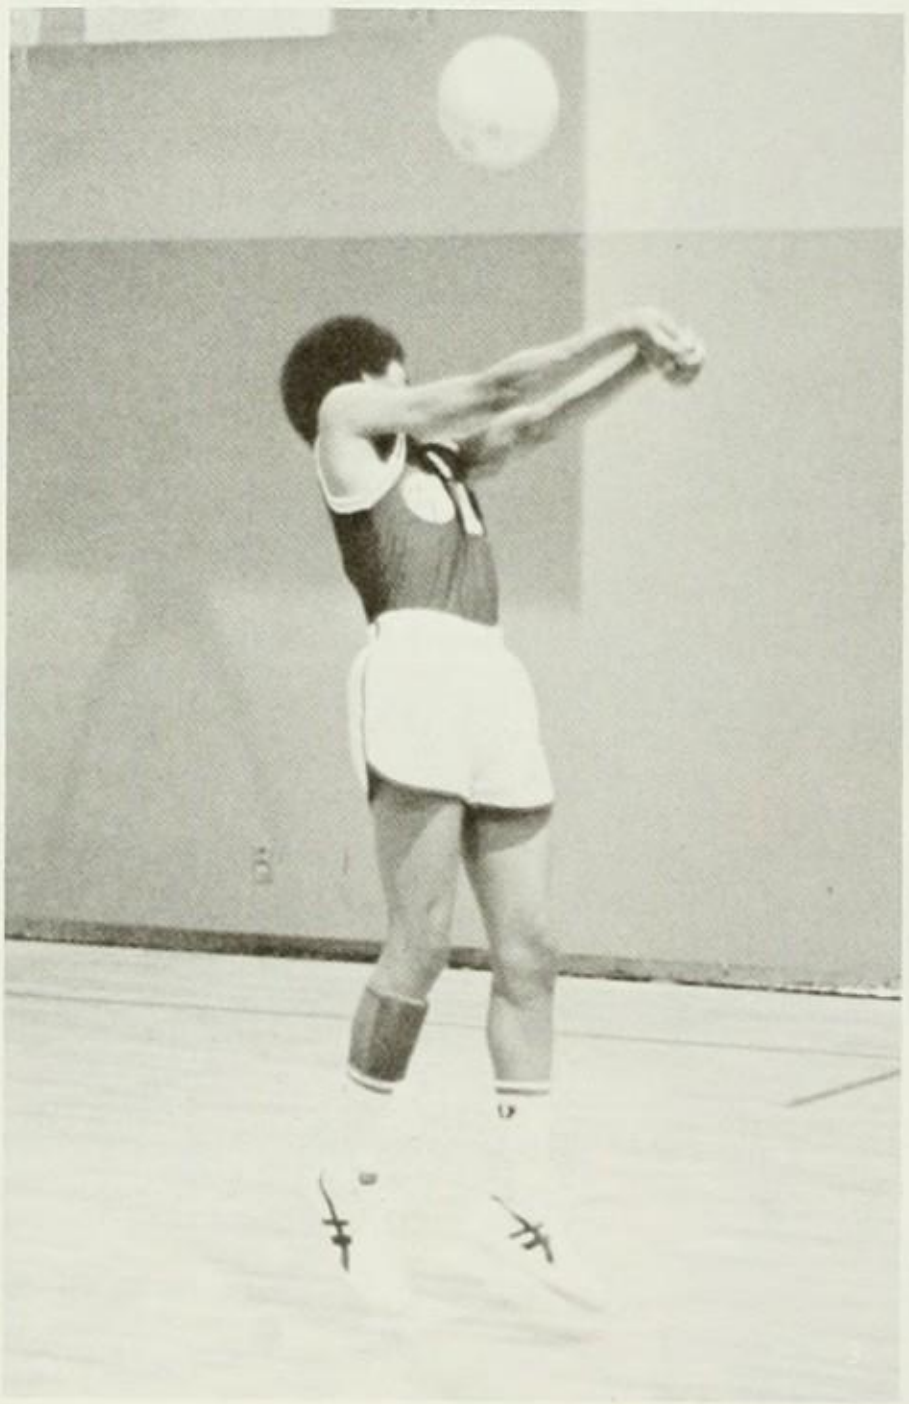
Leading scorers Wally Green and Gilbert Crummie, along with Ricky Walker, Michael LaBomme, Lawrence Breland, Victor Holbert, and a strong bench, kept our J.V. basketball team in control of most of their games.

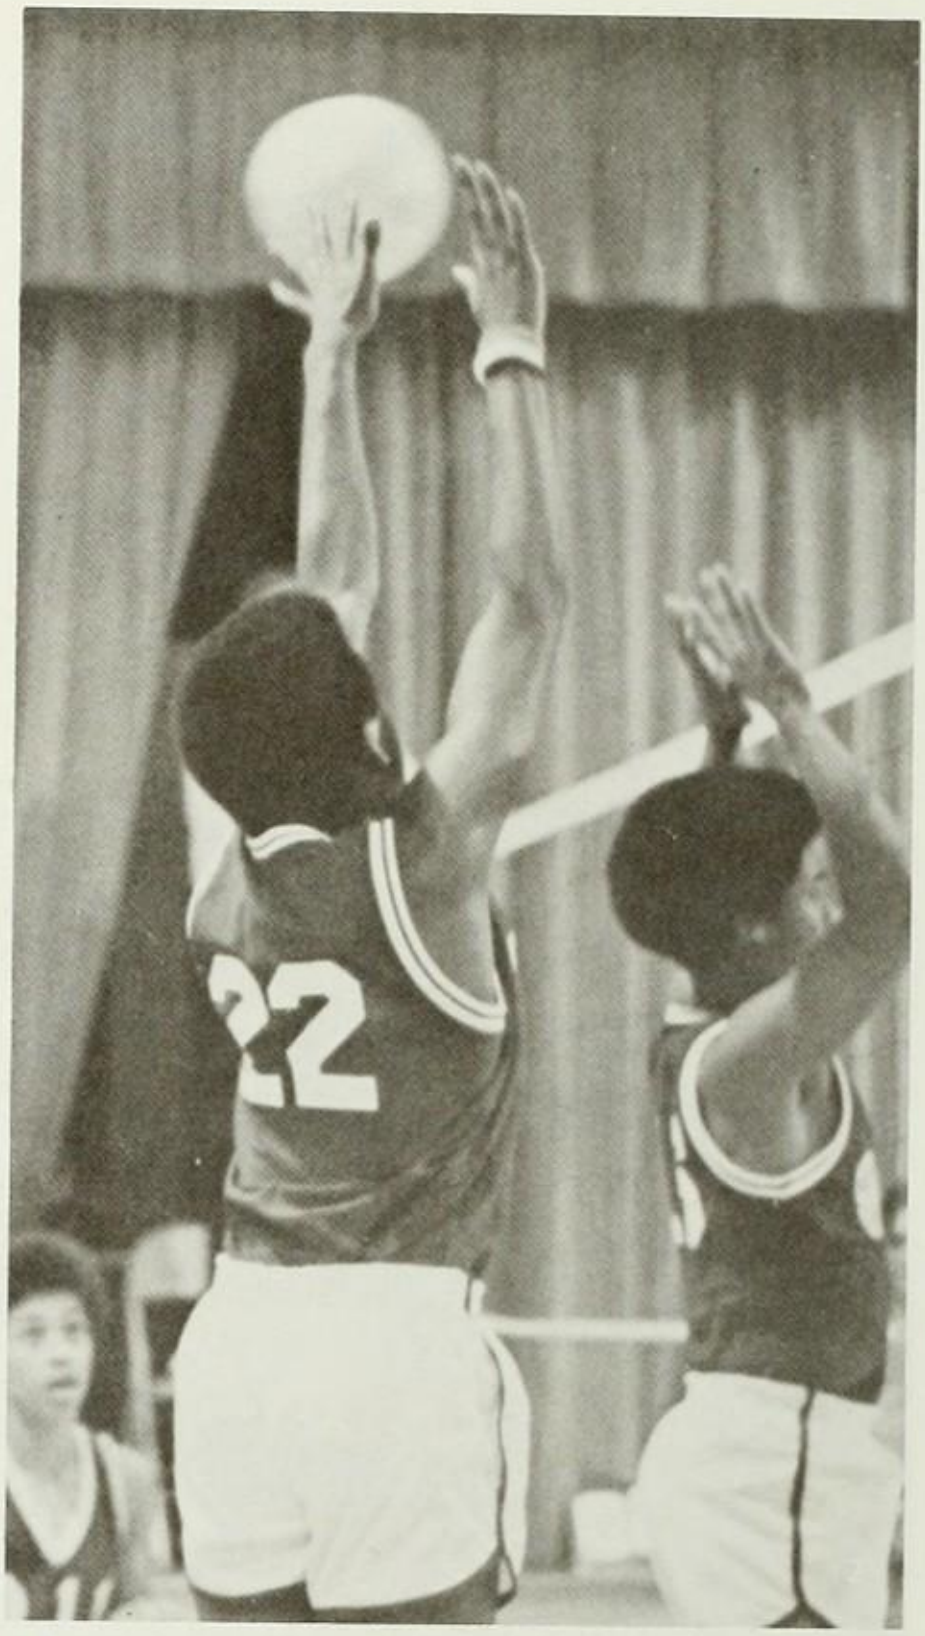
Coach Matthews described this season as a "grooming period" for the members of the team that will go on to play varsity ball as well as for the members that will remain in the J.V. ranks.

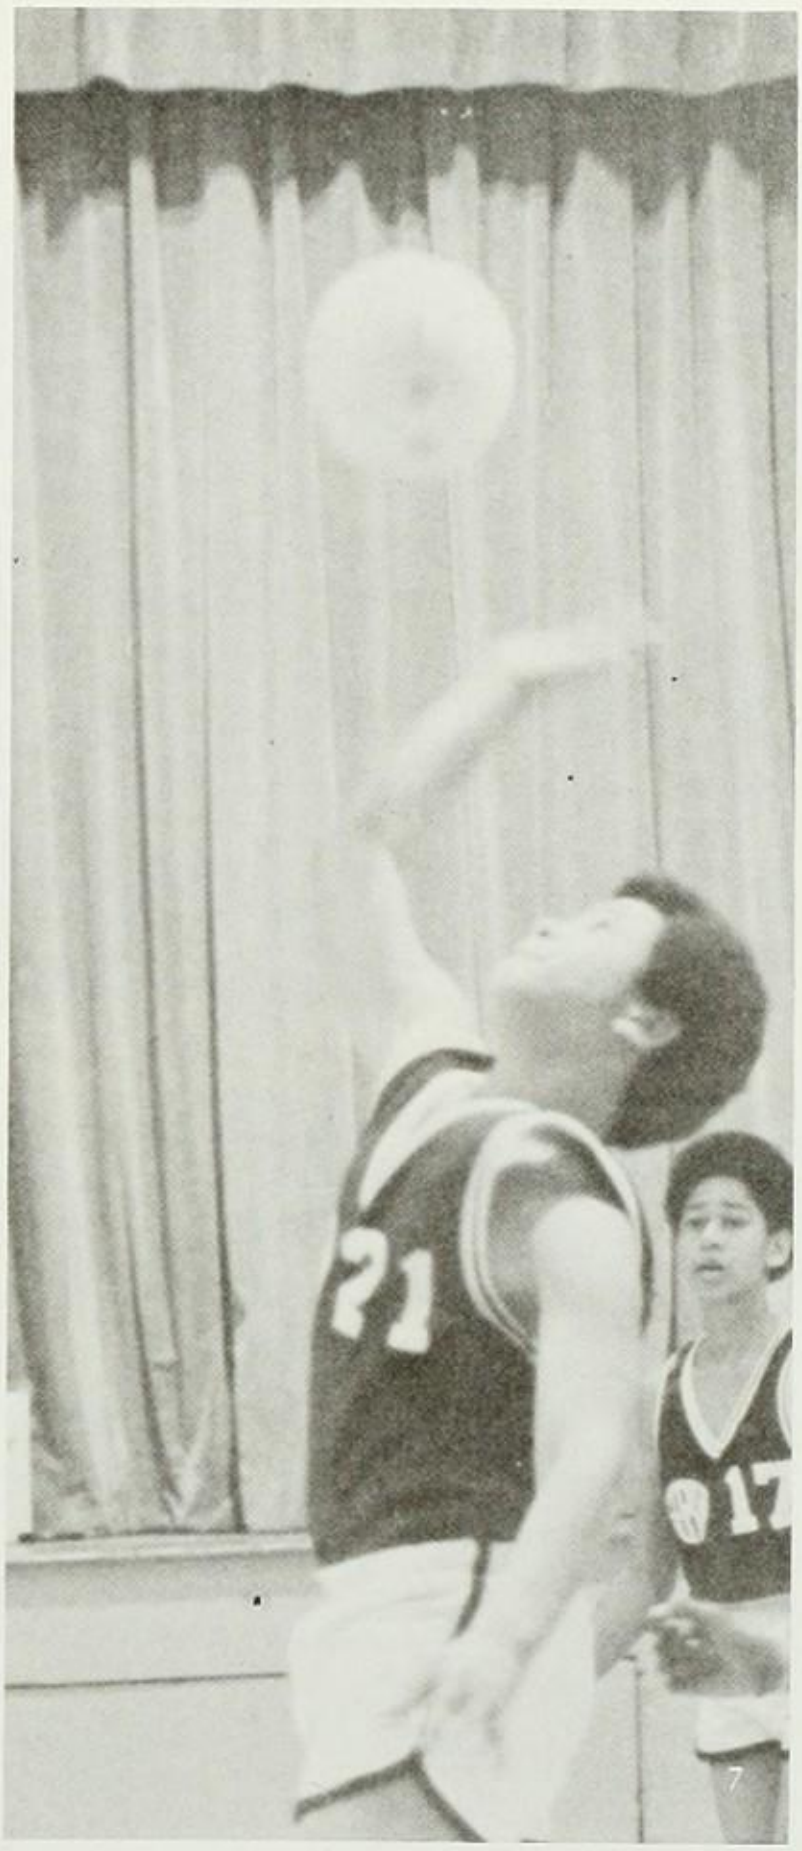


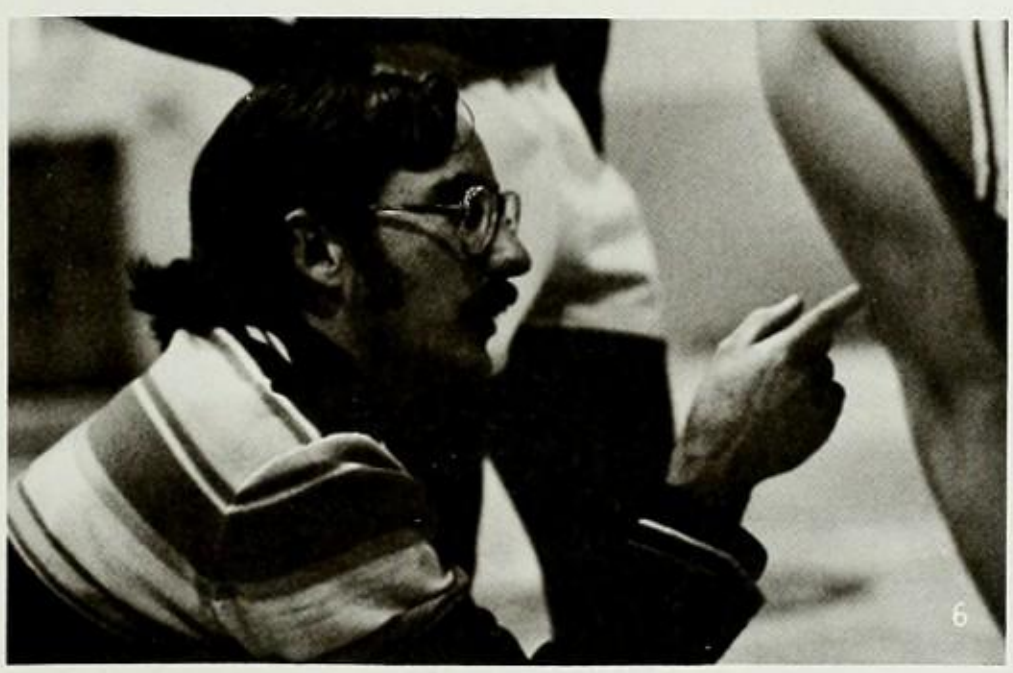
1. Coach Matthews prepares his team prior to the league opener against St. Bernards.
2. In the championship game of the Serra Tournament against Pius X, a J.V. Cavalier shoots from the outside. The Cavaliers took second place in the tournament.
3. Gilbert Crummy (35) commands the boards when he goes up for two against St. Bernards.
4. Breland manuevers down court against Pius X.
5. Under pressure Kevin Nelms passes the ball.
6. During pre-game warm-ups Daryl Jones eyes the ball has it teeters on the rim.
7. Against St. Bernard high scorer Gilbert Crummy lays the ball in.
8. Michael LaBomme goes up for two in the league opener.
9. Assistant Art Lyons yells instructions to his players during the Serra Tournament. Mr. Lyons briefly became head coach while Coach Matthews went on vacation.
10. In second half action Wallace Green drives for two.

J.V. Volleyball









The junior varsity team worked hard, looking to the future when they will represent Serra Volleyball Supremacy. Traditionally a breeding ground for the yearly-potent varsity, the 1978 squad, composed mostly of freshmen, turned out some excellent athletes, hungrily and eagerly awaiting their turns.

1. Eric Johnson receives the serve in the second game against the South Torrance J.V.'s.
2. Keith Hildreth gets his finger tips on a spike.
3. David Spence starts the play in a come from behind attempt against South.
4. Andre Linsay dives to make a save in the first game of a three game match against South Torrance.
5. Keith Hildreth returns the ball.
6. Bryan Mahoney prepares to slap the ball in the third attempt to get it over the net.
7. Coach Masterson tells his players what they are doing wrong in the opening game against S.T.

J.V. Soccer

The junior varsity team, playing with a new line up each game, met with disaster. After several defeats, Serra finally tied Cantwell 1-1 on a goal by Bill Biscoe. In the next game against Bishop Montgomery, the league's best junior varsity team, Serra was behind at half 5-0. Changing from a zone defense to man-on-man resulted in better quality play from the Cavaliers who allowed only one goal in the second half.

Using man-on-man defense, Serra went against St. Bernard. Bernard won 1-0, but Serra proved to be a tough match.

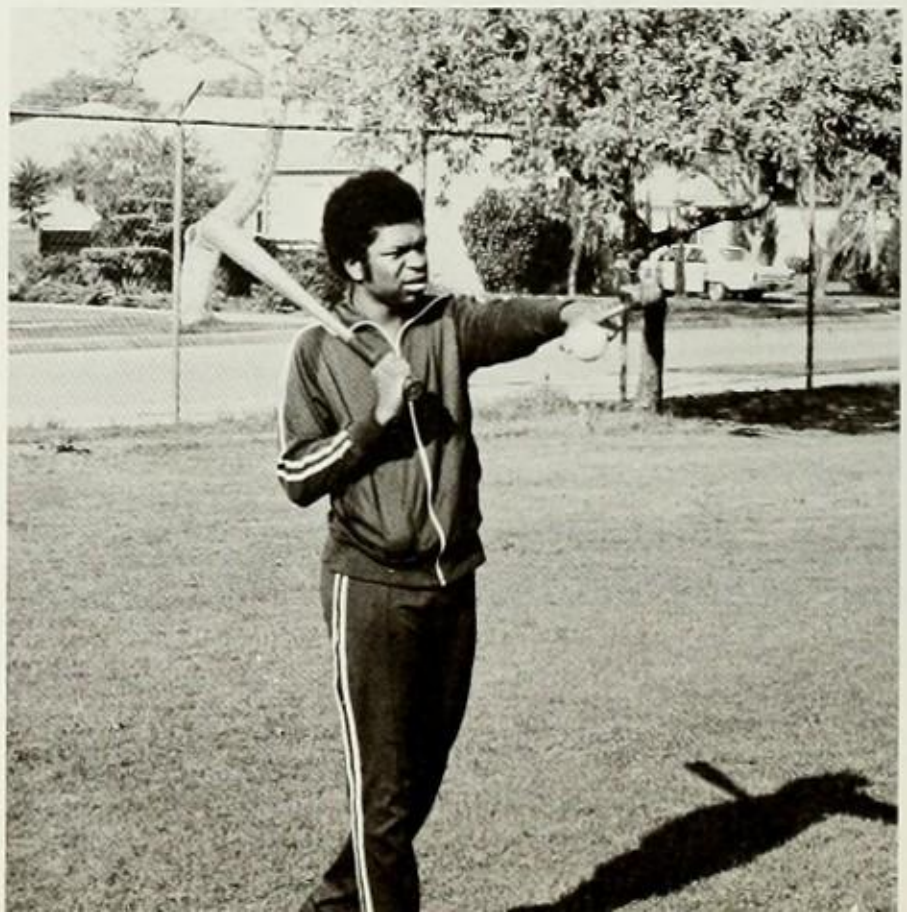
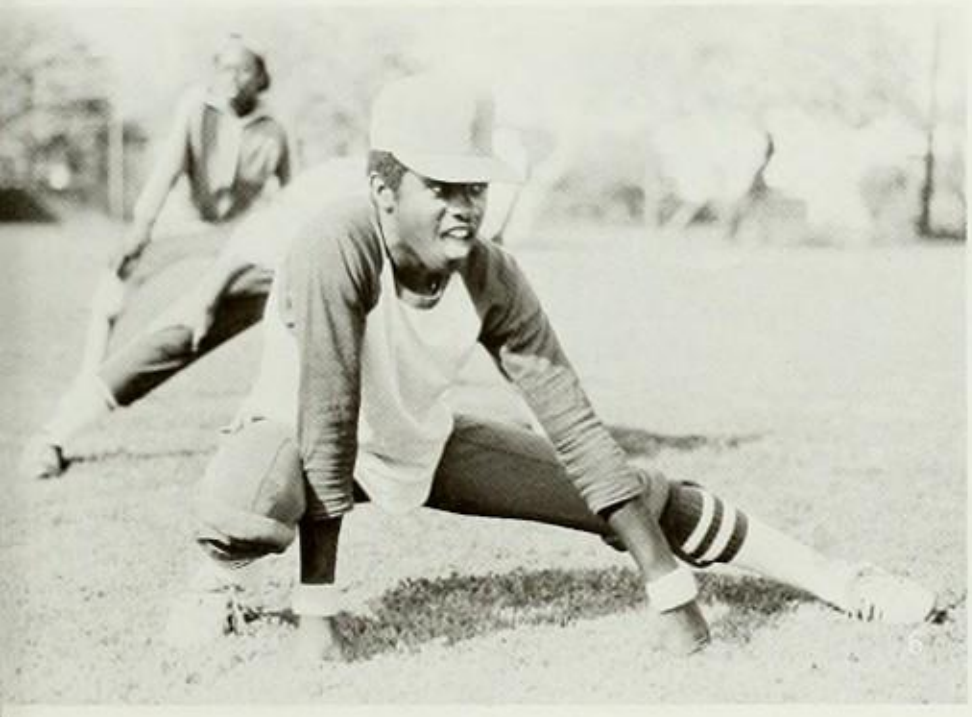
1. Just as Phillip Davis kick passes the ball a Murphy player jumps high in the air in an attempt to block it. 2. Alphonso Wright lines the ball out of Serra territory before it can be intercepted by Murphy. 3. Tim McKindley, accompanied by Wright, dribbles the ball in first half action. 4. With the Serra goalie in sight, Barry Gumbs kicks away the ball and muscles away a Murphian at the same time. 5. Kevin "Qualo" Kinsey is all alone as he takes control of the ball near the Serra goal. 6. Barry Gumbs gracefully lumbers down the Murphy side of the field with the ball in his control. 7. As a Murphy player nears the Serra goal, Davis challenges him for control of the ball.

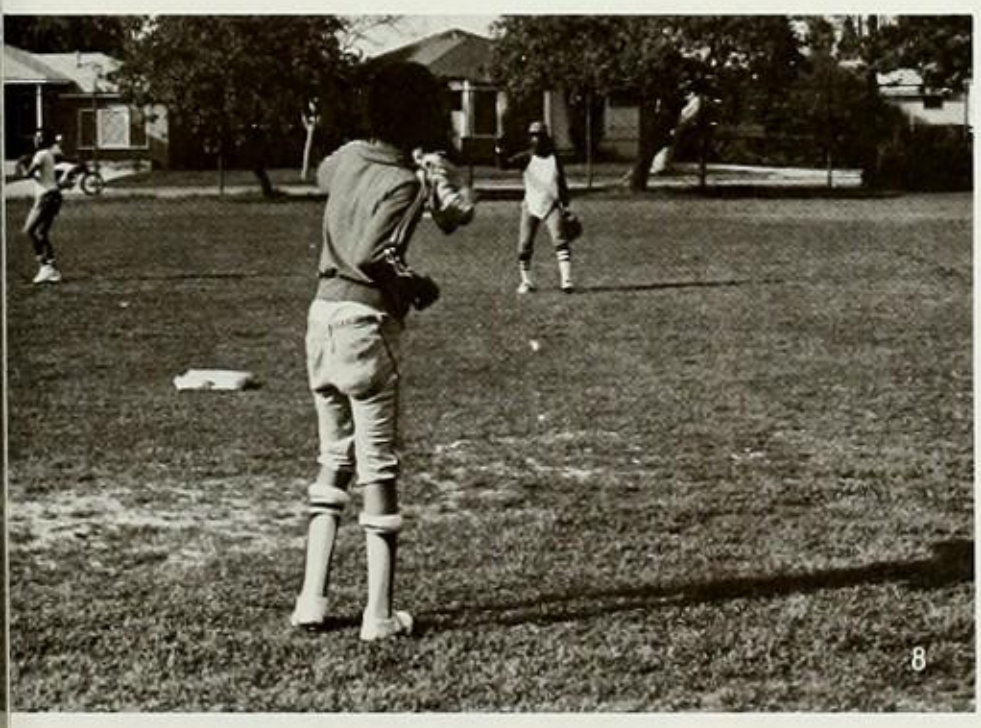
J.V. Baseball

Coach McDaniels and the j.v. baseball team fought against a new foe this year — rain. The new coach and the players who had come together for the first time proved their worth in combating the weather along with the other sluggers in the league.

The season called for a little more toil and a lot more soil.







1. Coaches McDaniel and Hall keep steady vigilance on the team's execution of their calisthenics.
2. The old shopping cart, carrying the junior varsity's equipment, performs its perrenial duty near a tree on the west side of the north field.
3. Dave Harrison improves his throwing and catching techniques by the simple exercise of throwing the ball and taking one step backward when catching, and starting all over again when the ball is dropped.
4. Coach Hall sets up a hypothetical situation on the field to test his players' alertness.
5. Before their practice session the team runs six laps around a quarter of the area of the north field.
6. With a grunt Tal Jones stretches the vital muscles.
7-8. Team members improve their throwing arms the day before their first league contest.

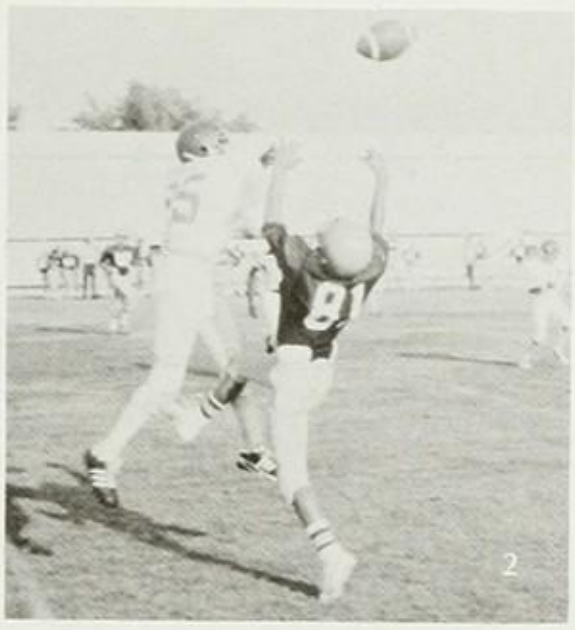
Frosh Enjoy Success

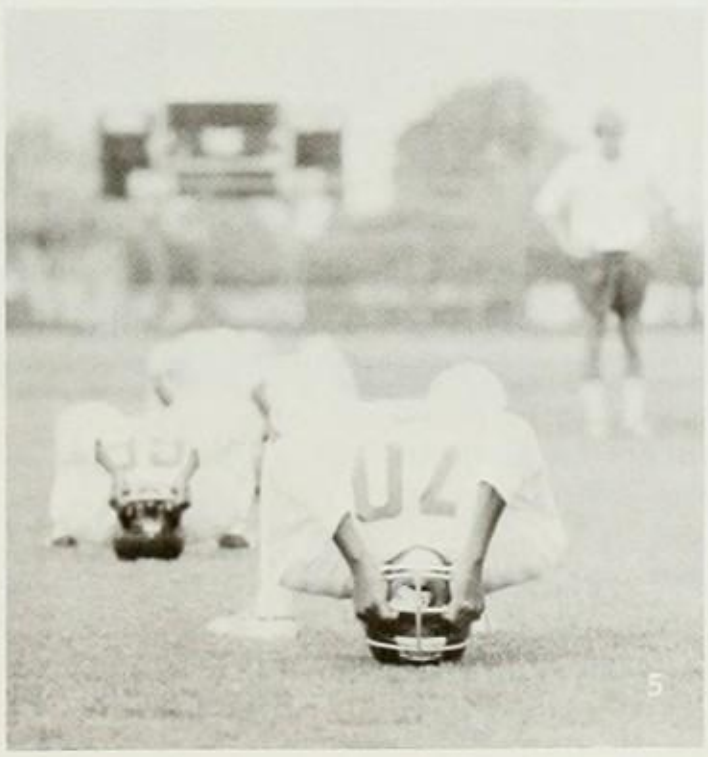
Coach Bartasavich

Pleased With Season

Serra freshman football coach, Paul Bartasavich, expressed satisfaction with the 1977 frosh football season: "The highlight of the year was our victory over St. Anthony's, a previously undefeated powerhouse." The frosh started fast, played well in every game and finished with victories in their last two games. Ron Story was a standout on offense.

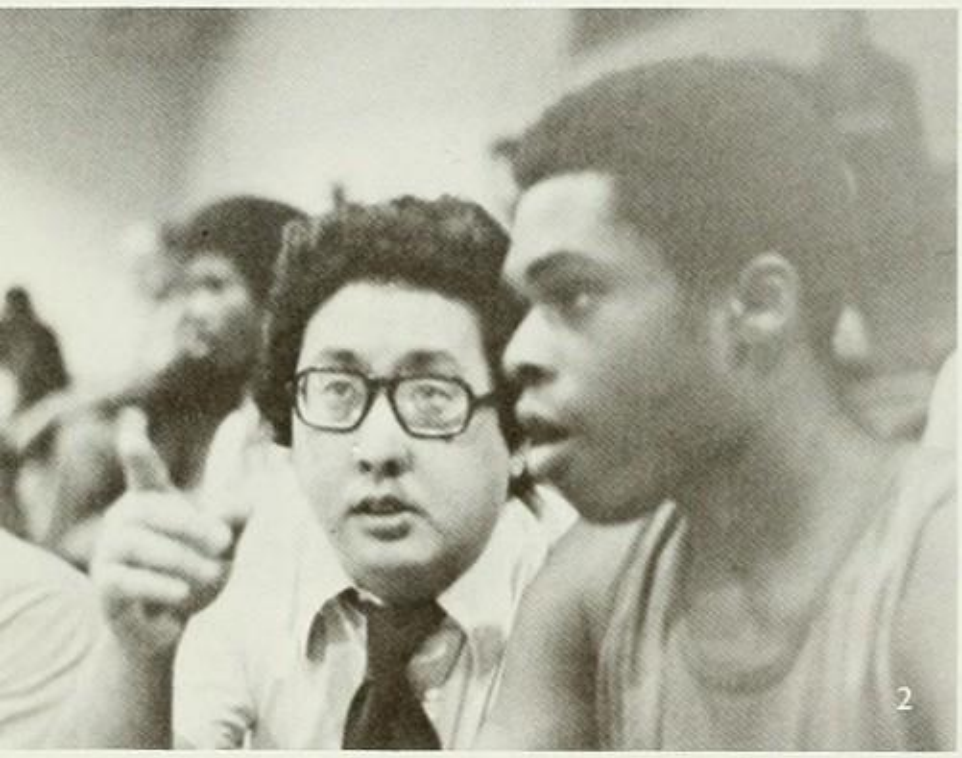
1. Frosh with Coach Bartasavich in pregame huddle. 2. Quarterback Ron Story picks out secondary receiver. 3. Assistant coach Ted Hastings selects sub at a key point in a Thursday afternoon contest.

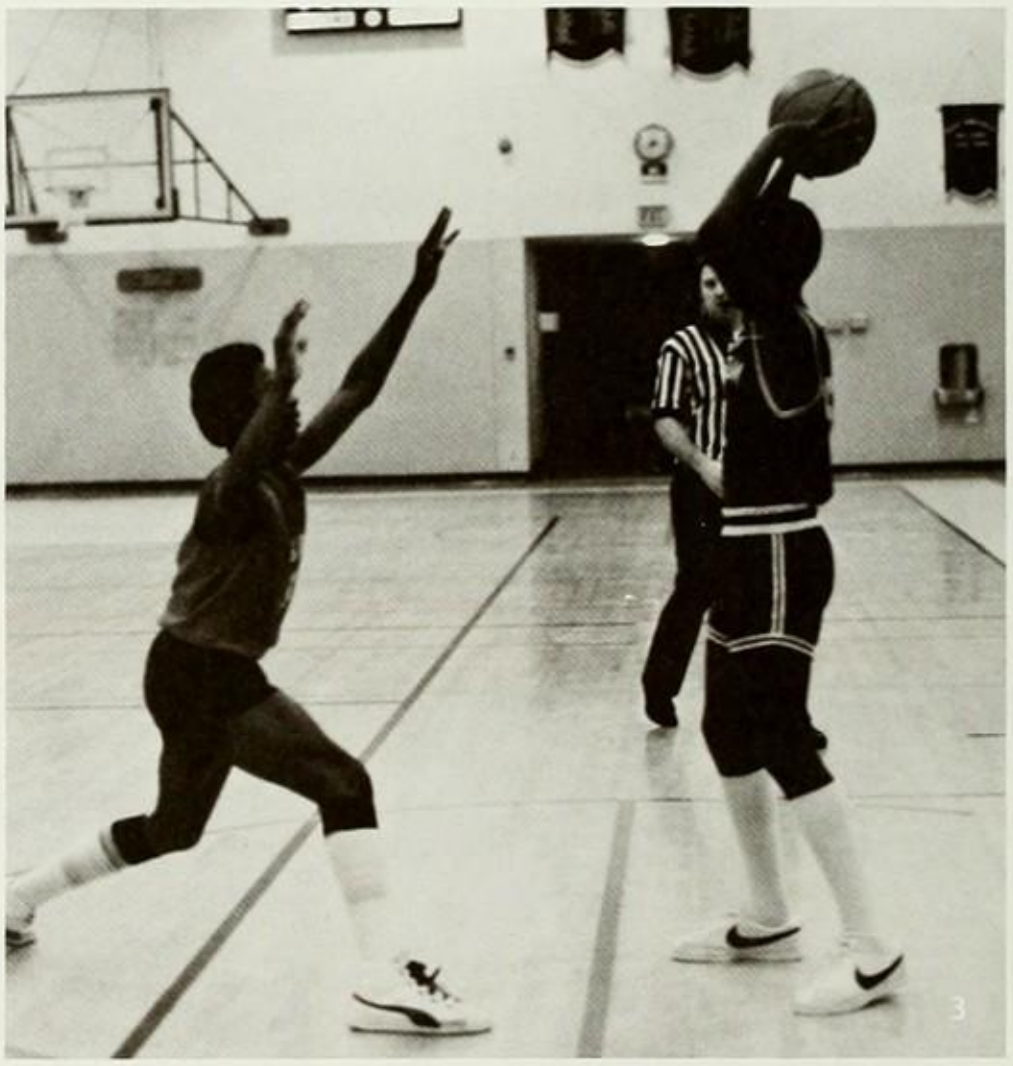




1. Blair Cox helps teammates with pads 2. Key defensive move by Walter Blackston in white. 3. First half action finds number 23, Ron Story, gaining important yardage with the help of Okeda Goodloe, number 33. 4. Coach Bartasavich in conference. 5. "I can do this on my head, Coach!" Number 70 is Joe Cormier.

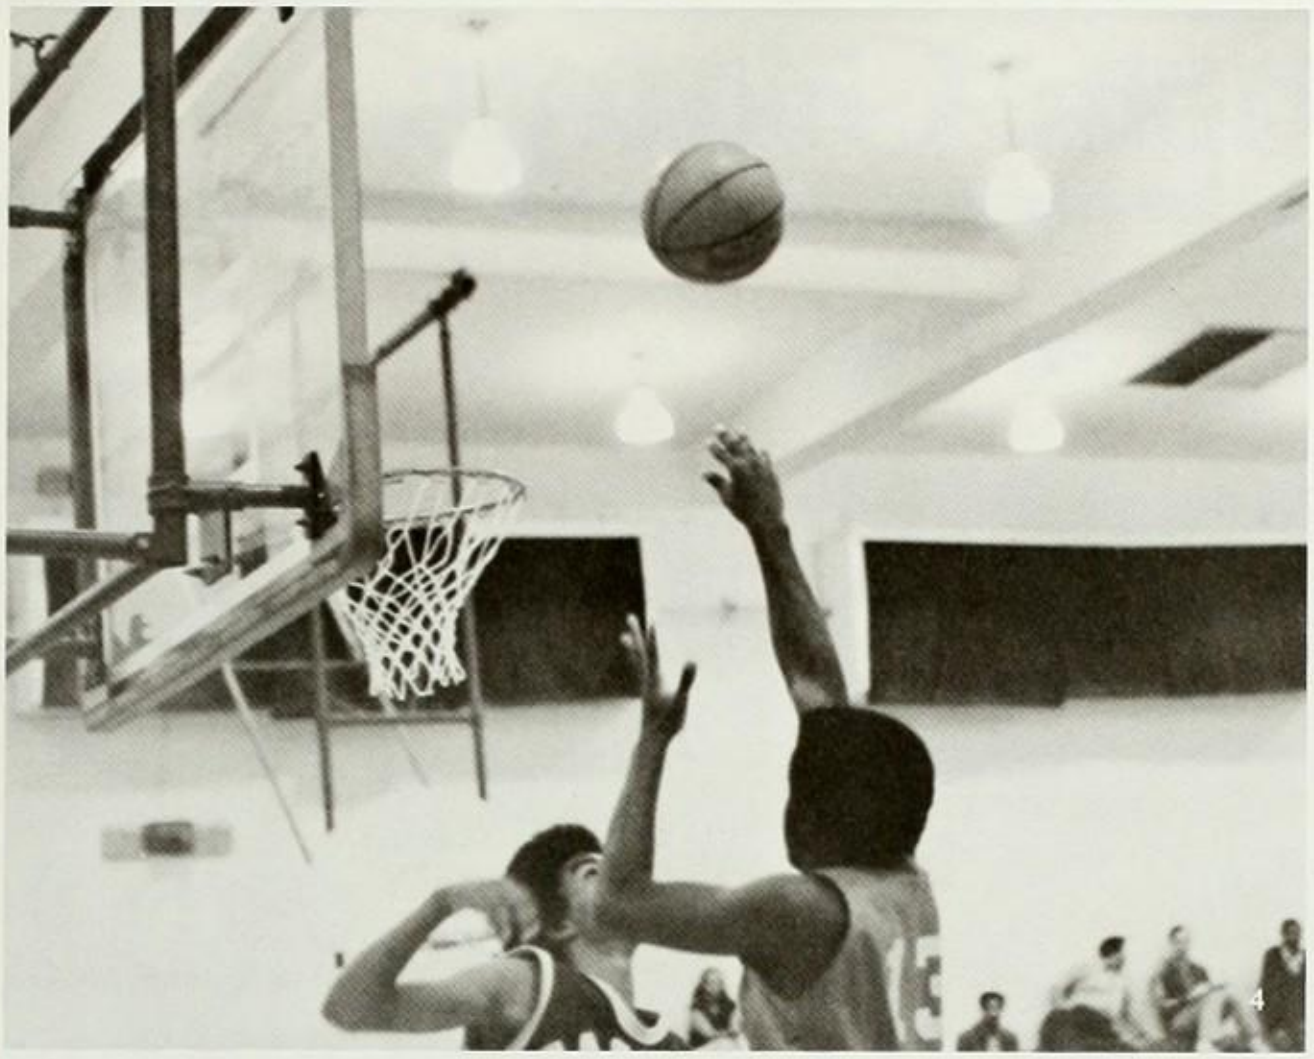
Frosh Eye League Championship





The 1977-78 Freshman basketball team gave strong indication that Serra would be very competitive in the upcoming years. Under the tutelage of coaches, Bro. Mike Chu, senior Jon Smith, and senior Ken Sison, the underclassman were taught the fundamentals and drilled many hours. They were molded into a cohesive unit. The Frosh captured 1st place in the Bishop Montgomery and La Serna tournaments.

This undefeated championship team raced to a 5-0 record in the first round of league play. With four games remaining in the second round, they hope to go undefeated and become Camino Real League Champions with an unblemished (17-0) record.



1. Michael Cooper drives toward the lane on a fast break with teammate Don Lombard (24) trailing.
2. Coach Chu points out action on the court while James Lachley gives an ear.
3. Jerome Gibbs exhibits good defense against an unfortunate foe.
4. Kevin Williams scores two points in the face of Eagle. Cavaliers won 68-57.
5. Michael Cooper goes up for a picture perfect jump shot.
6. Dwayne Biggers gets some pressure as he goes up for a baseline jumper in the Bishop Tourney.
7. Tracy McMurray goes up all alone for two points against Bernards in first league game.

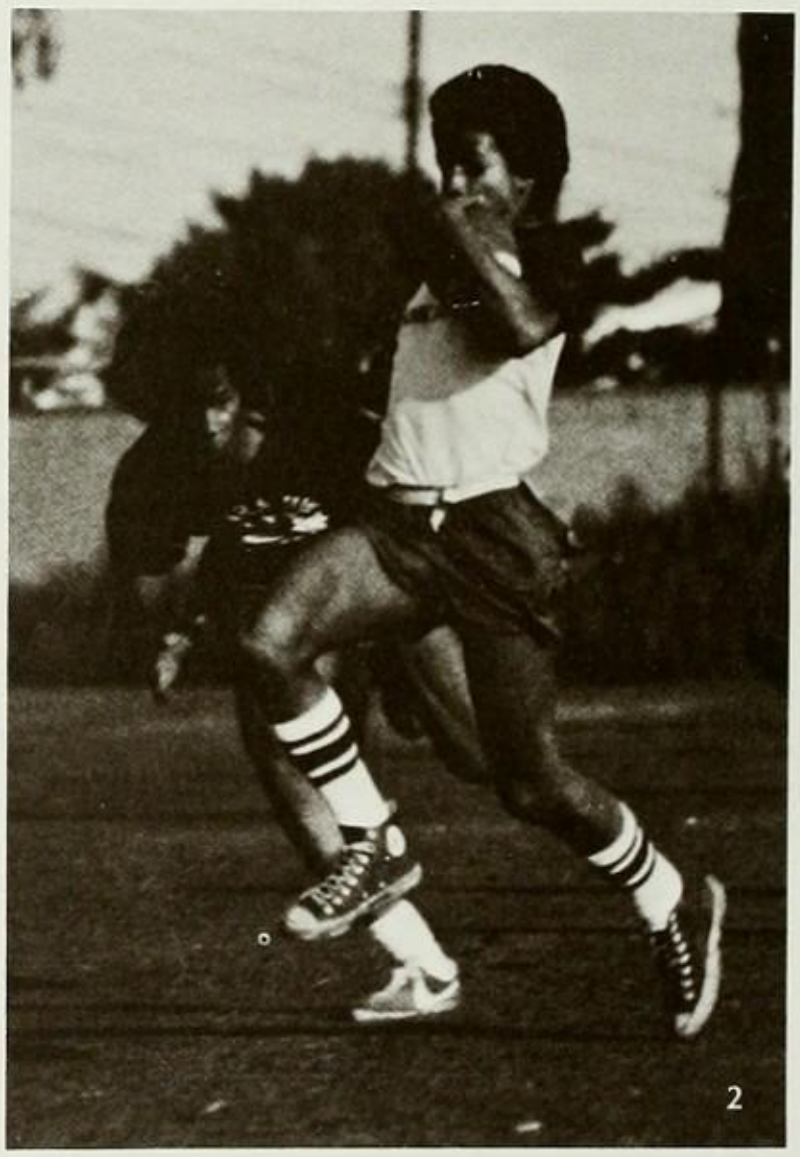
Football Intramurals

"We Are The Champions!"

STANDING: Calvin Sanders, James Sarpy, Wendel Wellman, Arthur Wimberly, Don Wiggins, Andy Trevino, Ronald Wiggins, Gregory Southern, (REF.) KNEELING: Oliver Williams, Antoine Washington, Derrick Williams, Anthony Tate, (REF.) RECLINED: Derrick Wells, David Tillman.

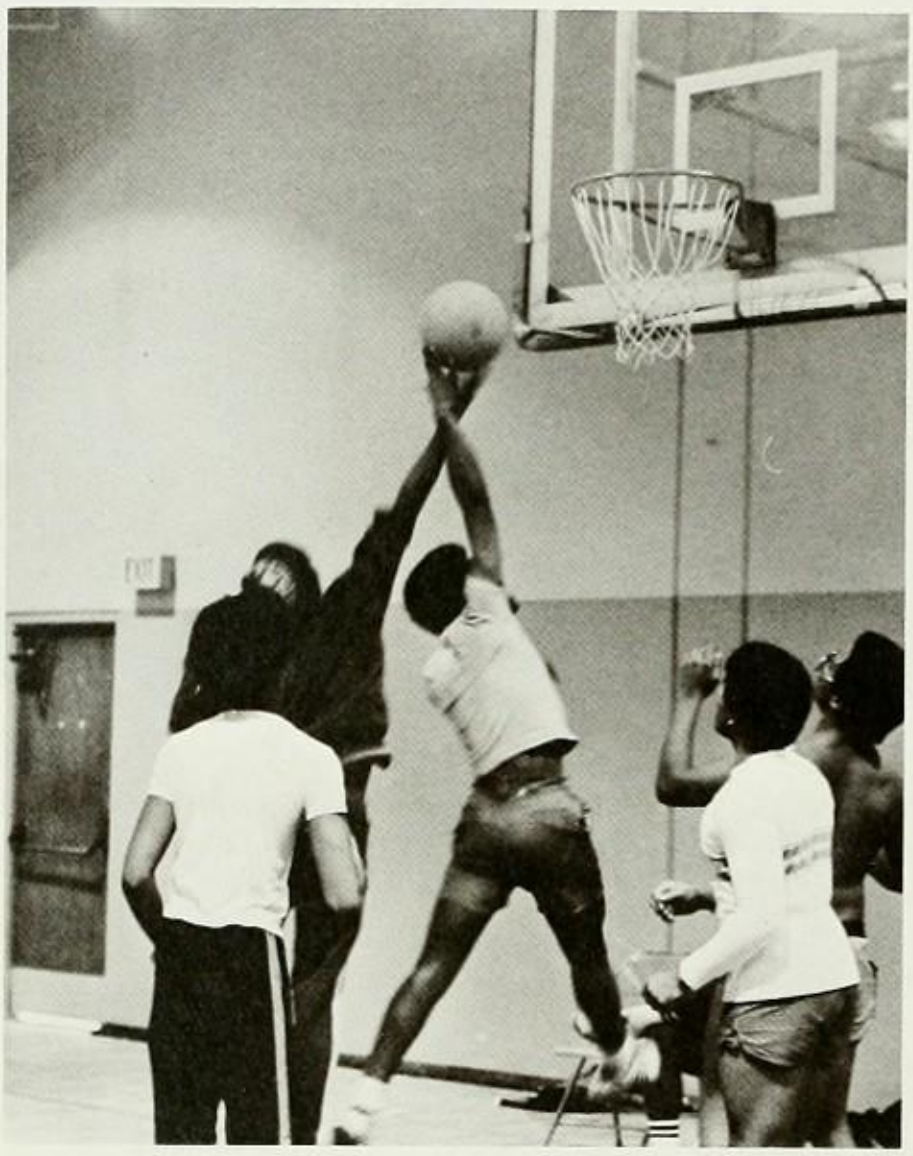
The football intramurals provided a chance for the not too physical players to display their athletic talents on the field.

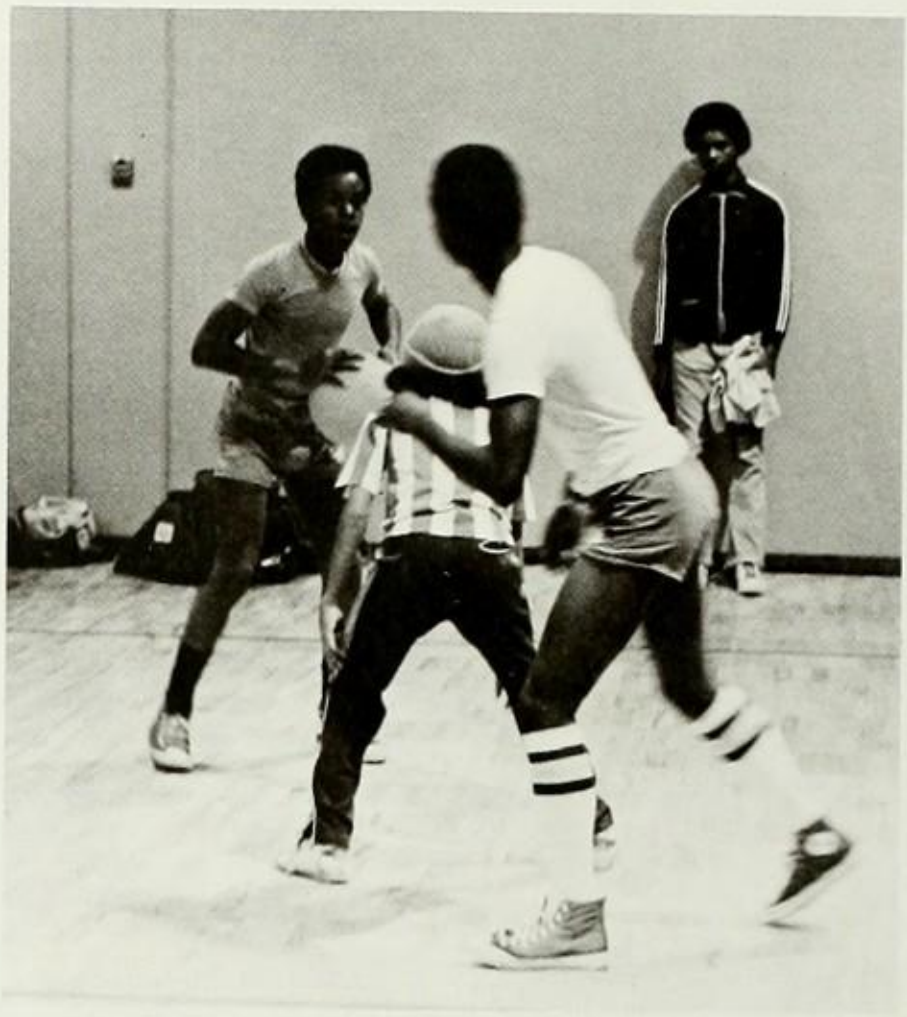
The 1977-78 football intramural champion was HR 27. With a 4-0 record going into the play-offs, they met HR 26 in the finals, a team that had beaten the COOKIES of HR 9. The final game proved to be an even match with the Moranians coming out on top. The score 20-12.

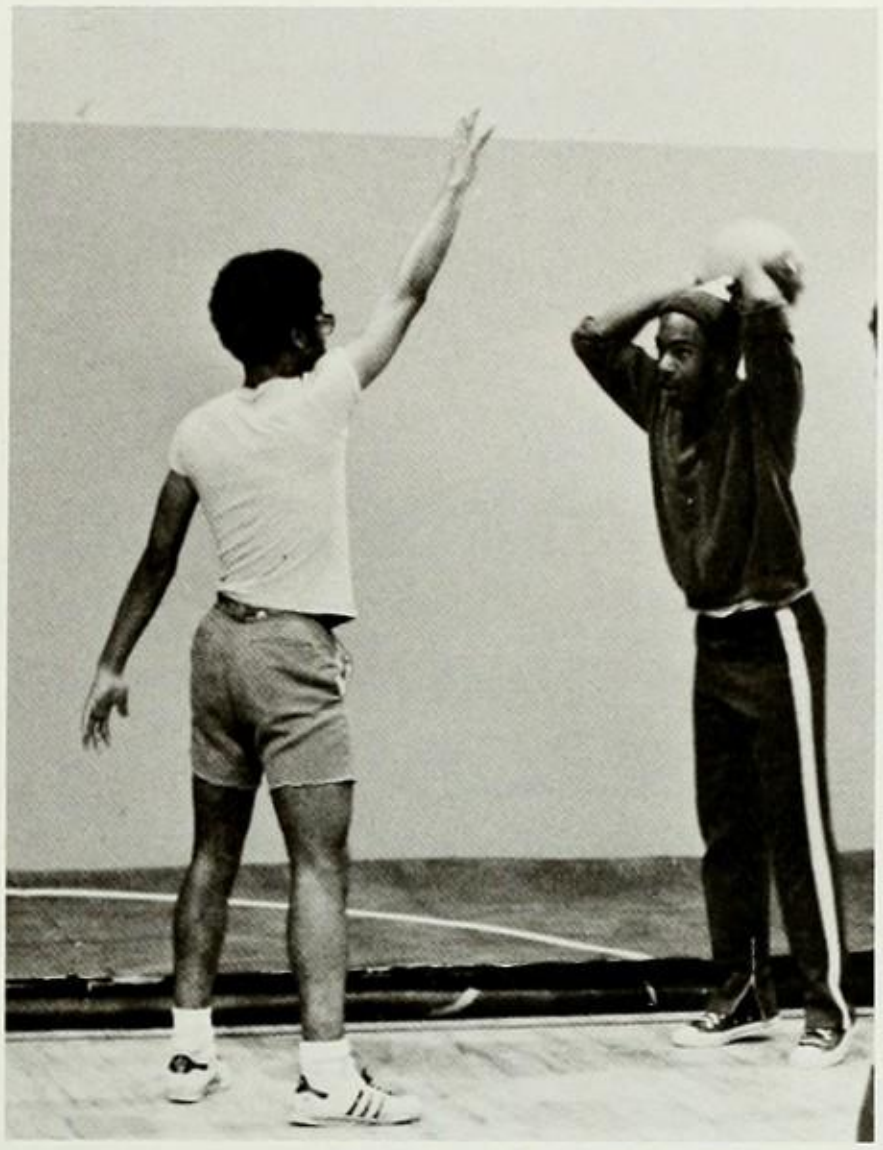


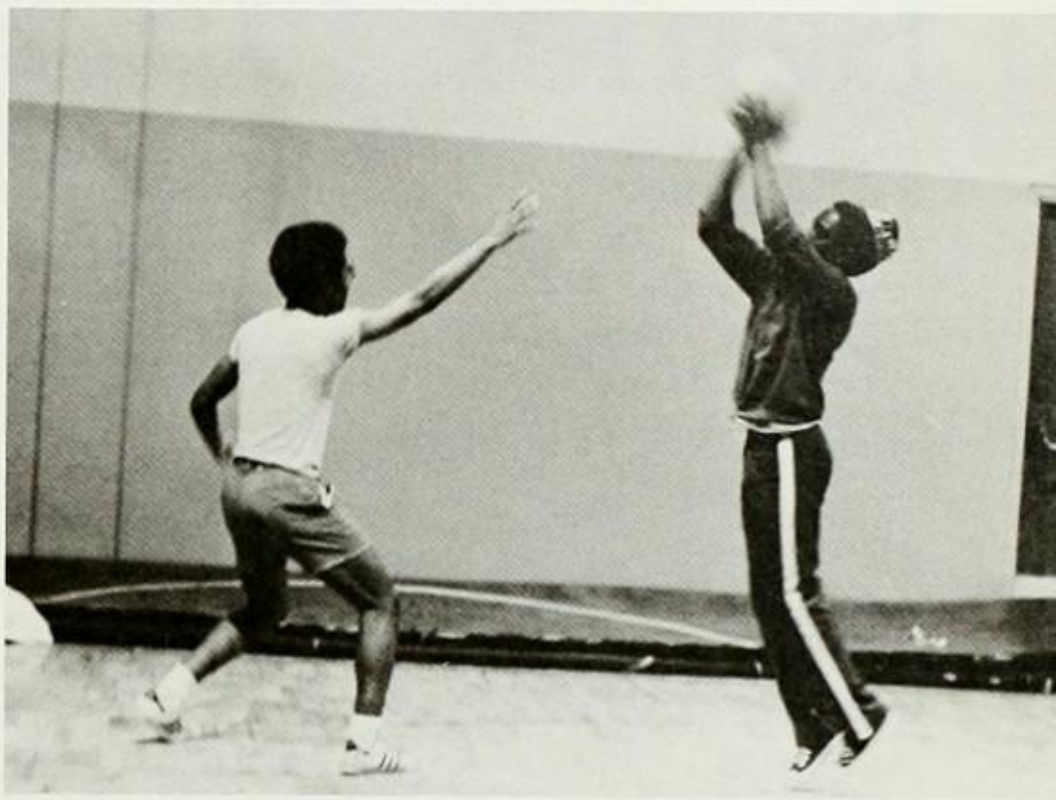
1. On a keeper freshmen Greg Priestley runs to his left to avoid Mr. Crowell's homeroom rush.
2. Dwayne Cox high steps his way to the corner of the end zone for a Cookie TD.
3. A heavy rush on his back, sophomore Delton Davis scrambles to his right while looking downfield for an open receiver.
4. David Williams grabs a piece of Greg Priestley's sweat pants in a futile effort to stop this long touchdown run.
5. Topless junior Darnel Parker turns on the speed while rounding the corner.
6. Senior Kevin Garnier's blocking gives quarterback Jeffery Hughes enough time to unload a pass.

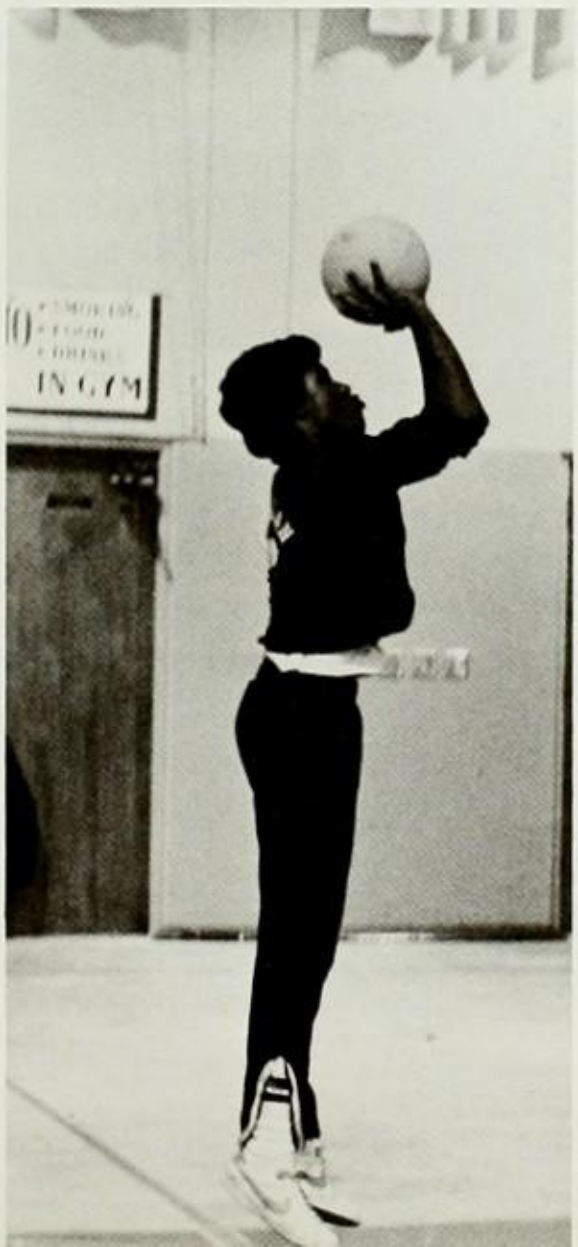
Basketball Intramurals











The basketball intramurals, the more participated sport of the two intramurals offered at Serra, got off to a late start this year due to the heavy rains. At the time of this writing the championship had not yet been decided, leaving only speculation of who would be number one on the Serra courts. The favorites this year were senior homerooms 27, the football intramural champions, and the Cookies of 9.

THE NEWSPAPER PUBLISHING BUSINESS INVOLVES MANY BEHIND - THE - SCENE DUTIES AND ACTIVITIES. . .

Miles of news and advertising copy to be written and set into newspaper columns.

Tons of paper work. Filing, billing, bookkeeping, circulation.

Hours telephoning. Researching stories, answering phone calls, making call-backs, taking classified.

Pictures to be taken, film to be developed, prints to be made.

Roll upon roll of paper to be run through the presses.

and many, many more duties

A Letter From The Editor

At the close of the 1976-77 school year and during the summer my adviser Mr. Bruce M. Langedyke met with my co-editor Ralph Gutierrez and myself to lay the ground work for this year's annual. Revisions, suggestions, and thoughts were aired at these meetings, which were also attended by other staff members. As the new school year began directions and goals were set.

We soon realized that flaws were slowly creeping into are well made plans. Apathy by some staff members could have meant a disastrous yearbook, were it not for the efforts of students Darren Casonhua, John Powell, Tim McKindley, David Powell, Paul Baratti, Ken Sison, Tom Zdralek, and Bryant Ennis. I thank these men for their efforts in the production of one of the finest, if not the best, yearbooks Serra has ever had.
